Taft Now Claims 448 Delegates

(By The Associated Press)
The Taft-Eisenhower duel for Republican Presidential-nominating votes tilted toward the Ohio Senator today, with delegate-seating contests looming as a possibly decisive factor.

Sen. Robert Taft apparently picked up 15 more delegate votes in Tuesday's West Virginia primary. The other one apparently went to Gen. Dwight Eisenhower.

Thus the Associated Press tally of delegate strength now shows: Taft 364, Eisenhower 304. The tabulation is based on known and avowed alignments of delegates. Nomination requires 604 votes and, in a close fight at the GOP convention in Chicago, a few votes—say 75—could mean the difference between nomination and also-ran.

All or part of delegations with 75 votes are involved in disputes over rights to be seated at the July 7 convention. Delegates favoring both Taft and Eisenhower have been chosen in Georgia, Louisiana and Mississippi. Another scrap over Texas' 38 votes comes to a head at a state convention May 27.

The West Virginia results, which also showed Taft an easy winner over former Gov. Harold Stassen of Minnesota in preferential voting, was hailed by Taft headquarters. Spokesmen, who claim Taft has 448 delegates to Eisenhower's 280, said the Ohioan is within range of first-ballot nomination.

Cobbing Singer Ray To Marry May 25

CHICAGO—(AP)—Johnny Ray, who cried his way to fame and fortune with emotional renditions of two songs, says he will be married on May 25 to Miss Marilyn Morrison in New York.

Ray, 25, said he and Miss Morrison, 22, daughter of a Beverly Hills, Calif., night club operator, agreed on a wedding date after a long distance telephone talk yesterday. Ray ends a Loop theater engagement today and plans to meet Miss Morrison in New York Monday.

Early End Predicted For 15-Day Oil Strike

By ROWLAND EVANS JR.
WASHINGTON—(AP)—Government labor officials today predicted an early end to the 15-day nationwide oil strike which already is affecting the Country's tourist trade and air service both here and abroad.

The Wage Stabilization Board decision yesterday to allow up to 15 cents an hour in wage increases to 90,000 striking oil workers brought prompt and favorable response from the unions involved.

Approved By Union
The proposed ceiling boost earlier had been agreed to by part of the strike-broken industry.

B. J. Schafer, vice president of the CIO Oil Workers International, issued a statement in Denver last night saying the CIO policy committee, and the coordinating committee for the CIO-Independent-AFL unions coalition, had reluctantly approved a proposed settlement on the basis of the 15-cent-an-hour increase, plus shift differentials of six and 12 cents and retroactive pay equal to the full amount allowable under WSB regulations.

The WSB refused blanket approval for the shift differentials, but said they would be considered on their merits.

The union approval, among other things, averted a threatened shutdown Wednesday midnight of the Gulf refinery near Cincinnati. The unions originally asked a 25-cent pay boost; the industry offered 10. Two weeks ago the unions lowered their demand to 18 cents, and companies employing between 15,000 and 25,000 oil workers raised their offer to 15 cents.

The WSB did not recommend that the striking unions, which do their negotiating on a local basis, be given 15 cents across the board; it simply said it would not approve more than 15 cents in any negotiated agreements submitted to it for an okay under wage stabilization policies. Except in extraordinary circumstances, the 15-cent figure is the ceiling.

Most oil workers now average between $2 and $2.10 an hour.

The federal conciliation service immediately ordered its regional directors to get local negotiations started again.

Democrats Hold Chicago Huddle

CHICAGO—(AP)—Democratic leaders went in to a huddle today to name the keynote for their party's National convention.

They also planned to choose a team to start work on building a 1952 platform.

The Democratic arrangements committee gathered for a closed session at the Stock Yard Inn, next door to the International Amphitheatre, where the convention will open July 21.

The meeting had this program before it: Recommending a temporary chairman who will deliver the keynote speech at the convention. Appointing a preliminary drafting committee to begin preparation of a platform.

Considering a permanent chairmen for the sessions that will produce nominees for president and vice president.

Studying the convention blueprints now taking shape.

Some members talked of Gov. Paul Dever of Massachusetts as the best bet for the keynote assignment and Rep. Sam Rayburn of Texas, House speaker, as the favorite for permanent chairman, a post he held at the 1948 convention.

It was indicated a half dozen names may enter the keynote discussions. Among those mentioned in meeting eye talk were Senators Joseph C. O'Mahoney of Wyoming, Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota and Ernest W. McFarland of Arizona, Senate majority leader.

Cobo Recovery Slow

DETROIT—(AP)—Staff physicians at Henry Ford Hospital here today termed Mayor Albert E. Cobo's condition "fair." Doctors said the mayor's recovery from a severe heart attack last April 24 was "slower than we had hoped it would be." Mayor Cobo yesterday, signed the city's 1952-53 budget from his bed.

Soldier Escapes

BATTLE CREEK—(AP)—Army authorities and state police resumed their search today for Pvt. Richard L. Head, 23, of Decatur, Mich. Head escaped from the Fort Custer stockade last Sunday. The Michigan soldier was sentenced for disorderly conduct and AWOL charges.

Legislators Recess; Gov. Williams Asks $4,236,072 More

LANSING—(AP)—The Michigan Legislature, asked by Governor Williams for $4,236,072 to prevent future trouble in the prisons and mental hospitals, stood still today to hear Gen. Douglas MacArthur and let its money committees scan the governor's requests.

The chambers agreed to recess tomorrow and return May 26, allowing the appropriation committees 10 days in which to work out grants to guard the state prisons and insane asylums against outbreaks and fire. There will be no session today, except for a joint gathering tonight to hear the general's address.

Six Vetoes Stand
The Republican Senate caucus agreed to make another attempt to balance next year's budget, despite Williams' vetoes of tax bills designed for that purpose. What method it would use was not specified.

The House failed to override the six vetoes.

Williams told the Legislature in a special message that the April riot at Southern Michigan prison cost $1,091,548, but he said the repairs would be covered by the state fire fund and that no general fund money would be needed. However, he said, the general fund might have to replenish the fire fund later.

The governor proposed using $678,299 of the fire fund to convert the fire-damaged library and general stores building into a laundry, reconstruct the chapel-auditorium, reconstruct the vocational school and quartermaster stores building and buy new supplies.

More Guards Wanted
Then Williams presented a request for $1,273,391 to cancel proposed reductions in the prison guard staffs and to employ 122 more guards at Jackson and 38 in the other two prisons.

He asked $600,000 for a new minimum-security building for young offenders at the Ionia reformatory to relieve overcrowding

Cloud-Seeding Sure Rainmaker, Says Scientist

TUCSON, Ariz.—(AP)—Dr. Irving Langmuir, Nobel prize winning scientist, said he had created a nationwide pattern of weekly rainfall by seeding clouds with silver iodide.

By creating rainfall in the Southwest, Dr. Langmuir said in a copyrighted story published in the Tucson Daily Citizen yesterday, he had changed the rainfall pattern over the entire country.

The experiments, he asserted, put the success of cloud-seeding beyond "valid doubt."

Tested 21 Months
Dr. Langmuir, associate director of the General Electric Research Laboratory, is evaluating the results of a 21-months project which he said was sponsored by the Army, Navy and Air Force. His full report is to be completed next September.

Here visiting relatives, Dr. Langmuir said in an interview with the Citizen that the project was set up to determine the value of cloud-seeding.

"Most of the persons who doubted the worth of seeding clouds with silver iodide," he said, "asked the same question: 'How do you know it wouldn't have rained anyway?'"

"To dispose of that argument once and for all we set out to establish a pattern of rainfall that could be measured across the United States."

Moves Across Country

A check was started of weather bureau records as far as they have existed. Dr. Langmuir said in all the recorded history of weather no similar pattern could be found.

Dr. Langmuir said he and a group of scientists found that when they had seeded the New Mexico air on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, it had rained in the east on Friday, Saturday and Sunday—the lapse being the time it took for the seeded air to move across the country.

Dr. Langmuir won the Nobel prize for his work in chemistry in 1932.

at Jackson and $35,000 for studies of new prisons for the aged and the young.

Urging the Legislature not to allow the mental hospitals to remain dangerously understaffed, Williams asked $1,208,600 for those institutions. Their budgets for next year are inadequate, he said.

The governor requested $924,081 to put the state police on an "adequate" footing and add 230 troopers.

New Liner Bids For Speed Title

ABOARD THE S. S. UNITED STATES—(AP)—The S. S. United States, America's bid for supremacy in the luxury liner class, sliced through the Atlantic today in quest of a speed record.

Britain's Queen Mary, which averaged 31 knots-plus on a 1938 trans-Atlantic run, holds the blue ribbon emblematic of speed supremacy at sea.

The United States built up to 30 knots without effort yesterday on the first day of her builders' run, and Vice Adm. E. L. Cochrane said the Queen Mary's speed will be bettered today.

Cochrane, U. S. maritime administrator, said the ship's actual speed will be kept secret for security reasons. If the Queen Mary's record is broken this fact will be announced, but the actual speed will not be published because the ship may be converted into a troopship in case of war.

"We don't want an enemy to know her speed capability as the lives of 14,000 men would be involved," Cochrane said.

MacArthur Tours Michigan Arsenal As Throngs Cheer

LANSING—(AP)—General Douglas MacArthur said he was "thoroughly impressed" today as he watched the Lansing Oldsmobile main plant turn out vast quantities of both defense and civilian production.

"I think this is magnificent," he said as the tour concluded. "This all reflects the superiority of American techniques over any other in the world."

Greets Bataan Veterans

As he left the plant, 38 veterans of Bataan, Korea and Japan who served under him waited in a double line at rigid attention. The men were dressed partly in work clothes and partly in their old uniforms.

Collision Splits Tanker, 4 Perish

WILMINGTON, Del.—(AP)—An oil tanker loaded with 700,000 gallons of high octane gasoline exploded in flames early today after colliding with a freighter in the Chesapeake and Delaware canal.

Four men were believed killed. The U. S. Coast Guard said four crewmen of the tanker, F. L. Hayes, were "missing and presumed dead." The tanker's captain and five others of the crew jumped overboard and swam to shore.

The tanker was still aflame some 10 hours after the crash in its beached position on the canal's north shore, about 20 miles south of Wilmington.

Coast Guard officials said the 240-foot Hayes, owned by Ira S. Bushley & Sons, New York, and the 6,100 ton freighter, Barbara Lykes, collided shortly after midnight and fire broke out on the tanker.

A third ship, the Bull Line's Angelina, also became involved as blazing gasoline from the tanker spilled into the canal and set her afire. These flames were extinguished and the Angelina continued to its dock in Philadelphia. Two of her seamen were injured.

The ships crashed in the busy Chesapeake and Delaware canal, a 200 foot wide waterway between Baltimore and Philadelphia.

Red Mig Shot Down In Ball Of Flame By New U. S. Jet Ace

SEOUL, Korea—(AP)—An American Sabre jet pilot today turned a Red MIG-15 into "a ball of flame" and shot down another in a screaming 50-mile chase at tree-top level to become America's 15th jet ace.

One other Red plane was destroyed in the fight over northwest Korea in which Lt. James H. Kasler of Indianapolis shot down his fourth and fifth Communist planes, the Fifth Air Force said.

Kasler said the first plane was "a ball of flame as he crashed just on this side" of the Yalu river separating Korea from Manchuria. On the 135-mile ground front, action was limited to patrol skirmishes and artillery firing.

Steel Workers Union Frames Up Further Demands

PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—The CIO-United Steelworkers, their threat to launch a new nationwide steel strike already a matter of record, today appeared ready to approve other demands: a union shop, repeal of the Taft-Hartley act, a national daily labor newspaper.

Steelworker President Philip Murray, who is also head of the CIO, held the union's O. K. to call a walkout of 650,000 steelworkers if the union cannot win—promptly—a satisfactory wage increase.

The 2,500 delegates to the sixth (biennial) constitutional convention gave spontaneous and unanimous approval of the strike threat yesterday as two top Truman administration leaders—Vice President Alben W. Barkley and Secretary of Labor Maurice Tobin—voiced strong support for the demands.

No date has been set for a strike but rank-and-file steelworkers, in angry attacks upon management, hinted the new shutdown might start—perhaps suddenly and without notice—should the U. S. Supreme Court void federal seizure of the steel properties.

Besides the matter of a wage increase, the issue of a union shop is another top steelworker demand. The Wage Stabilization Board suggested that this be included in a new contract.

Union Shop Demanded

A resolution unanimously approved by the union's top policymakers is before the convention. It renews the union's determination to win the union shop.

Industry spokesmen have insisted that the chief stumbling block in the present dispute is not wages but Murray's demand for a union shop.

Murray, however, said the big issue is industry's efforts "to wreck the stabilization program and to extort inflationary steel price increases."

Luncheon At MSC

The visitors watched production of 3.5 inch bazooka rockets, Oldsmobile high compression engines at the rate of 62 per hour, pressed metal parts, 90mm tank cannon and the final assembly of completed cars.

The motorcade then headed for the Michigan State College Kellogg center where the Michigan Press Association and the legislature were joint hosts at a luncheon.

Gen. MacArthur, in full uniform, climbed down the ramp from the airliner and shook hands with Gov. Williams. "I don't know whether that will help you or hurt you politically," the General said to the governor with a

Reds Claim Allies Are Using POWs To Test Atomic Bombs

MUNSAN, Korea—(AP)—Red truce negotiators today accused the Allies "of every crime in the books," including use of prisoners of war for atomic bomb experiments.

The United Nations Command termed the charges "transparently ridiculous."

The U. N. Command communique said the Reds made "an all-inclusive propaganda attack which charged the U. N. Command, among other things, with using prisoners for experiments 'with poison gas, germ weapons and atomic bombs'."

In a 43-minute speech, North Korean Gen. Nam Il asked: "Can your side deny that the criminal acts of insults, tortures

Cut In Foreign Aid Defeated

By WARREN ROGERS, JR.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Fresh from an initial victory, President Truman and his foreign aid program lieutenants worked today to build a rampart of Senate votes against any further cutting of its billions.

Administration backers beat off a move to clip 400 million dollars from the $6,900,000,000 total by a 7 to 6 vote yesterday in the Senate Armed Services Committee.

Thus the bill—already trimmed a billion from the President's original request for $7,900,000,000—returns to the Senate in the same form it went to the committee last Monday. There was plenty talk of a floor fight over further reductions, possibly as low as an even six billions.

President Truman, in a serious-voiced discussion of foreign aid and military funds last night, said: "We are winning the cold war, and I fear very much that if the Congress continues to follow the attitude that it has on these immensely important appropriation bills, we may lose it, and then—then these defense appropriations will look like a drop in the bucket."

Communists Use Gen. Colson Pact For Propaganda

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
TOKYO—(AP)—Gen. Mark W. Clark today repudiated the much criticized "Colson agreement" with Red prisoners of war on Kojima Island. "It has no validity whatsoever," Clark said.

The United Nations commander said Brig. Gen. Charles Colson, temporary prison camp commander, since removed, had no authority to "accept any of the vicious and false charges" made by the Reds.

Plotted By Reds
Colson signed the statement to win the release of Brig. Gen. Francis T. Dodd, former Korean prisoner held Dodd hostage 78 hours last week. Communists are now using the agreement for propaganda in truce negotiations.

General Clark announced today: "The exchange of communications between Brig. Gen. Colson and the inmates of compound 76 who were holding Brig. Gen. Dodd by force and violence has no validity whatsoever."

"The circumstances under which these exchanges took place from the very beginning were those of duress involving the physical threat to the life of a U. N. officer. Investigation made so far indicates that this affair was care-

Building Bans Go Off July 1

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The government today lifted controls from four metals and ordered relaxation, effective July 1, of its ban on the building of amusement and recreation places.

The National Production Authority (NPA) also restored the use of structural steel and aluminum to new houses, as of mid-year, and eased its restraints on construction of shops, stores and office buildings.

Four metal orders—those regulating lead, antimony, cadmium and bismuth—were revoked outright. In addition, allocation and limitations on the use of zinc were lifted. This left zinc subject only to inventory control.

Evidently concerned lest decontrol actions strengthen opposition to extension of the defense production act, NPA Administrator Henry H. Fowler stressed that many materials remain scarce and some are getting scarcer.

He also said that if serious strikes or military crises occur, "our plans may have to change."

Fishing For Beer

MARGAREE HARBOR, Nova Scotia—(AP)—For fishermen with dip nets and a thirst, the fishing was good but different. When a truckload of beer went over a bridge here, they turned out in force. Several hundred quarts were recovered from the waters that, until now, were famous only for salmon.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The House passed and sent to the Senate today a bill raising the pay of servicemen nearly half a billion dollars annually. The rollback vote was 333 to 0.

The bill is a compromise of different versions previously passed by the Senate and the House. It still requires Senate approval before going to the President. If it becomes law by May 31, the raises for 3½ million service personnel will become effective with the May payrolls.

The proposed increases range from $3 monthly for privates and seamen to $65 for two-year generals and admirals. They are intended to help offset higher living costs.

Omitted is a Senate-voted amendment to give an extra $45 monthly to men who are fighting in or who have fought in Korea. The House Armed Services Committee is expected to consider Korea combat pay soon as a separate measure.

Rubinoff in Concert Tonight

Rubinoff and his Violin, a musical combination known to millions will be presented in a popular concert tonight at 8:15 o'clock at the Wm. W. Oliver auditorium under the sponsorship of the Escanaba Lions Club.

Rubinoff's accompanist will be Mr. M. Alexander, a talented pianist.

Born in Grodno, Russia Sept. 3, 1897, the son of poor parents, Dave Rubinoff was brought to America in 1911 by the late Victor Herbert. Ultimately he gained tremendous success and popularity with Eddie Cantor's radio show and other network shows.

At the concert tonight, Rubinoff will play his famous Stradivarius violin, made in 1731 by Antonio Stradivari. The instrument passed into the hands of the Romanoffs, reigning family of Russia. It disappeared during the Russian Revolution but later turned up in Paris in possession of a former Russian prince who fled the country with the violin.

The violin bears the elaborately engraved coat of arms of the Romanoff family as well as the identification mark of Stradivari and the date.

The program that will be presented tonight by Rubinoff follows:

Escanaba Youths Like Violin, Says Rubinoff

Dave Rubinoff, world famed violinist who is presenting a concert of popular selections this evening at the Wm. W. Oliver auditorium, believes that Escanaba has more young people playing the violin than cities of populations many times larger than Escanaba.

"I was amazed and thrilled with the violin sections in your Junior and Senior high school string orchestras when I played for them this morning," Rubinoff said.

"Mrs. Somers is doing a marvelous job with these youngsters."

Elks President Visits Escanaba

Activities of Escanaba lodge 354, B. P. O. Elks, received official commendation last night from Russell Kesler of Iron Mountain, president of the Upper Peninsula Elks Association, who paid his annual inspection visit to the local lodge.

"Escanaba rates right up to the top in my estimation," Kesler declared in a talk following the regular meeting of the lodge. The association president, who so far has visited 11 of the 14 Elks lodges in the Peninsula this spring, pointed out that Elks membership at Escanaba was the second highest in the district, exceeded only by Sault Ste. Marie, and that the Escanaba lodge rated third in the total of charitable contributions.

Team Work Praised

Kesler praised the ritualistic work of the Escanaba lodge officers, who conducted an initiation ceremony last night. The local team is one of eight entered in ritualistic competition at the Upper Peninsula Elks convention in Iron Mountain this weekend.

Summing up the activities of the Upper Peninsula Elks Association, formed in 1939, Kesler mentioned as highlights the college scholarship program, the blood donation campaign, entertainment of veterans in the Iron Mountain VA hospital, spring convention and fall roundup of the association's 5,500 members, membership in the state association of 45 lodges, an annual Elks bowling tournament, and the ritualistic work emphasis.

Others who commended the work of the Escanaba officers following the initiation ceremony were A. J. Goulais, past exalted ruler at Escanaba; Ken Pavey, Iron Mountain; and William Kur-in of Negaunee, association vice president.

Scouts Need Equipment

Duncan Cameron reported on activities of the Boy Scout troop sponsored by the Escanaba Elks, and said that the present need of the troop was for camping equipment. The troop will leave Saturday for an over-night camp near Rapid River, and Elks will provide transportation.

It was announced that blood donations pledged by Escanaba Elks would be received May 26 and 27, when a mobile unit will be at the K. of C. hall. Further details of the schedule will be announced later.

The meeting last night opened with a turkey dinner attended by a capacity crowd and served by wives of Elks.

Mrs. Clara Somers is instructor of string instruments in the school system.

The noted violinist commented that most young people today "want to be Tommy Dorsey or Benny Goodman." "They are inclined to think that violin players are sissies with long hair."

No Long Hair

He added that Rubinoff doesn't wear long hair.

Rubinoff said that among his great pleasures is the playing of his precious Stradivarius to school children.

"That is why I always play to free assemblies in the schools. God gave me a great talent and I want to share it with the youth of America."

In addition to the free assemblies at the Junior and Senior High School this morning, Rubinoff is presenting a full length concert at low admission prices for students this afternoon, and the public concert for adults this evening.

Among his many souvenirs, Rubinoff proudly displays a large watch which he carries with him all the time, a gift from the late Will Rogers, and a jeweled medal, presented to him by the boss of the musicians' union, James C. Blood Donors' Clinic Planned

"The supply of life-saving whole blood for the armed forces in the United States and in foreign service is running dangerously low," said Harlan J. Yelland, local attorney who is publicity chairman for the drive that is now being waged for blood donors. Whole blood or plasma fractions are used regularly in the hospitals and on the battle field to save the lives of persons suffering from shock and undergoing surgery and those hurt in accidents or fires. There is no longer enough to meet the daily needs the are demanded by the armed forces through the regularly held blood clinics.

Plans for a community blood procurement center are now being made and a drive for blood donors has been completed. This drive is to procure donations of blood which will be used for the emergency created by our armed forces.

A blood donors' clinic will be held at the K. C. Building on May 27th from 3 P. M. to 9 P. M. and on May 28th from 11 A. M. to 5 P. M. Mrs. Florence Isaacson is in charge of all arrangements. She has named Mrs. K. F. Harrington co-chairman, Mrs. William Desmond, canteen chairman; and Harlan J. Yelland, publicity chairman. There will be volunteers to help out at the clinic.

Everyone is urged to register by May 20th in order that a schedule may be set up and unnecessary waiting at the clinic avoided. Appointment notices will be mailed as soon as registration is completed. However, it is pointed out that the lack of an appointment does not bar anyone from making a donation of blood at his convenience.

Mr. Yelland pointed out two urgent reasons for the continued drive for blood for the armed forces. First, regardless of events in Korea or other parts of the world, wounded veterans in military hospitals need a continuous supply to save their lives over the months—or years—that lie between convalescence and recovery. Second, the armed force's dangerously low reserve of blood must be built up quickly to be ready for any possible future emergency.

The need for blood has never been greater than it is today, Mr. Yelland said. "If you haven't given blood for some time, phone for your appointment now. And keep that appointment to save a life. At any rate, do your bit toward this national emergency, and make plans to give your share of blood for those who are willingly sacrificing their health and lives."

Jury Convicts Nedeau Of Theft

A verdict of guilty was returned by the jury yesterday afternoon after the trial of Edgar Nedeau, 30, of St. Jacques, on the charge of illegally taking an automobile in Nahma March 1, 1951.

The jury retired to its chambers at 4:10 p. m. and gave their verdict at 4:45.

The defense rested after calling only two witnesses to the stand, the defendant, Edgar Nedeau and his sister, Doris Nedeau.

In his summary argument, defense counselor pleaded that bad judgment was the factor involved in Nedeau's taking of the car, disclaiming that criminal intent motivated the action.

Two rebuttal witnesses, Gladys Dionne and Eliza Cloutier, testified for the state before the prosecutor rested the People's case.

Nedeau will presumably be sentenced next week.

Jurors on the case were Mrs. Francis Bugay, Herman Seppanen, Harry Buchman, John A. Fisher Jr., Lillian Grenier, Mrs. Delia Nerbon, Marion T. Barry, Haldora Dunathan, Mrs. Inez V. Gustafson, Mary Esler, Minnie Thompson and Mrs. Laura Rose.

Secrecy in Relief Rolls Will Not Help Solve Fiscal Problems

THE principle of secrecy in relief rolls, as contained in a bill enacted by the Legislature and signed by Governor Williams, is no help to governmental agencies striving to make financial ends meet.

The welfare expenditures represent a substantial percentage of county budgets and particularly in Delta County where welfare costs on a per capita basis are among the highest in the entire state.

Yet we find that in Delta County the 15 mills maximum assessment on real and personal property will not yield sufficient revenue to meet the needs of both the county government and the schools. In this county the 15 mills has been equally divided between the two governmental agencies and both groups report that their yield will be insufficient to meet their anticipated budgets.

Secrecy in public records is abhorrent to the democratic way of life and no less so because the secrecy involves welfare rolls. It offers little hope that welfare expenditures may be reduced when welfare rolls are locked in secrecy.

The law by the Legislature actually makes little change in past conditions. It merely reiterates that the legislative bodies of the various communities may vote to let its citizens look at specific records in specific cases where fraud is suspected. The catch, of course, is that it is almost impossible to find evidences of fraud when the records are secret.

A discouraging aspect of the new legislation is that it is contrary to the action of Congress in its last session which enacted a statute giving the states the right to end secrecy in federally-supported welfare cases such as Old Age Assistance and Aid to Dependent Children. The new Michigan law specifically continues this secrecy.

Let us be misquoted or misunderstood, we emphasize that we know of no cases of fraud in Delta County welfare rolls. We do not hint that there is any fraud in the welfare rolls of this county.

It could be, however, that welfare rules in Delta County are more liberal than elsewhere and that we are being more generous to welfare recipients than the financial condition of the county permits, in the face of the difficulties confronting both county and school governments in the year ahead.

The high per capita cost of welfare in Delta County suggests this to be true.

SUGGESTED PLAN (Iron Mountain News)

Admitting that the Iron Mountain area has become the No. 1 "project" in their state-wide program, officers of the Michigan Department of Economic Development have prepared an outline of objectives based on recent talks with various business, industrial and civic leaders here. Principal among the suggestions for solution of the current economic problem is the appointment of an Industrial Development Committee for this community which would devote full-time to cataloging the advantages of the area and broadcasting the information widely among industrial interests which may be planning expansion.

In other words, the Department suggests "an all-inclusive, responsible community-action group which will function in the current emergency and continue for the long haul in promoting the industrial development and economic welfare of the area."

This, of course, is immediately recognizable as another step in the expanding effort to determine and list the resources, facilities, skills and other advantages of the community and to compile the results in a concentrated selling campaign over a wide area, but aimed particularly at the sources which might be considered as potential prospects for new industry. In reality, it is a familiar pattern in new dress, for the effort to enlist all existing agencies of the community in a spirited drive for new industry has been going on for some time. It has long been in the top-spot for the Iron Mountain-Kingsford Chamber of Commerce, and will continue there.

Nevertheless, the efforts of the Michigan Department of Economic Development are welcomed here as another link in the lengthening chain of effort. Organized during the term of former Governor Harry F. Kelly, the Department has maintained an active staff of field representatives who have visited this community many times, and particularly during the past few months, in an effort to focus attention upon the local problem.

It is hoped that all phases of industry and business be represented on the new Iron Mountain-Kingsford Industrial Committee—manufacturing, engineering, production, selling, distribution, retailing, wholesaling, transportation, banking, power, fuel raw materials sub-contract services suppliers, city government, taxes, welfare services, labor and other public groups and agencies. The organization will be sponsored here by the Iron Mountain-Kingsford Chamber of Commerce, and will include, also members of the Chamber's own new-industry committee.

In any event, if the committee's chief objective of preparing and executing a consolidated sales promotion campaign for this community is faithfully carried out, it must, of necessity, do some good. It may go even farther than that and bring one or more much-needed new industries into Iron Mountain-Kingsford.

Uncle Sam has exempted canned fried worms from price control. We don't get the angle.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — The future Army career of Brig. Gen. Francis Dodd is not bright. He may be shipped to Okinawa.

What made the Pentagon furious was that carelessness by him resulted in his capture just at a time when Washington had carefully worked up an international plan to break the truce deadlock.

President Truman had announced to the Communists and the world that not a single prisoner concession would be given. By pre-arrangement, the top leaders of France and England made the same ultimatum. These statements had been carefully timed to hit the front pages of every paper in the world, including newspapers behind the Iron Curtain.

But just at the climax, General Dodd's capture swept the truce ultimatum off the front pages. It also made us the laughing stock of the Asiatic world, where "face" counts for everything.

What burns up Secretary of Defense Lovett is that General Dodd and every other American general in Korea knew that this was an extremely important moment in the truce talks and had been warned to be ultra careful.

Note — The Army is now investigating how come a secret telephone happened to be installed inside the prison camp; also, why General Dodd did not have armed guards at hand to keep him from being dragged inside the compound.

BUY AMERICAN ACT

A significant test of the "Buy American Act" is now before the Army Engineers, and the entire diplomatic corps is watching it. The case involves the purchase of nine transformers by the Army Engineers for Garrison Dam in North Dakota.

Secretary of State Acheson has repeatedly emphasized that we cannot expect our European Allies to become self-supporting if we are not willing to buy their goods. However, Congress, at cross-purposes with this policy, passed the "Buy American Act" requiring the U. S. government to buy American products unless there is an "unreasonable" difference in cost. An "unreasonable cost" has been interpreted by the armed services as 25 per cent more for American goods than foreign goods.

As a test of this act, the Army Engineers have received a bid from Ferranti, Ltd., of London on nine transformers at $887,000. This is considerably less than the nearest American bid, that of Allis-Chalmers for $1,065,000.

Considering the fact that the British price includes a payment of $85,000 duty, plus a differential of $176,000, this would be a considerable saving to the American taxpayer, and members of the diplomatic corps are watching to see whether the Army Engineers carry out Acheson's policy.

"ALL IS MADE FOR BULL"

Biggest boon to Congressman Frank "All-is-Made-for-Love" Boykin in his recent primary victory in Alabama was Evangelist Billy Graham. Only a few weeks earlier in Washington, Graham said:

"I have avoided politics like the plague. I would never get involved in a political campaign."

However, Graham, not only attended a dinner with Boykin but toured part of Mobile with Boykin. This had a real impact on revival-minded folks around Mobile.

The Congressman, who is under investigation in connection with RFC loans which benefited his family, announced publicly that he was giving the Reverend Dr. Graham a blooded Brahmin bull. Other pastors in Mobile wondered what the difference was, in principle, between a bull and a mink coat.

FUROR IN FRANCE

Adm. William Fechteler's reported statement that war is inevitable before 1960 and that Aussa would overrun all Europe within three days has caused such a furor on the continent that U. S. Ambassador Jimmy Dunn in Paris has been ordered to investigate.

Fechteler's statement was published in Le Monde, the New York Times of Paris, generally friendly to the United States. Fechteler is reported to have told the National European bases and that the only way to stop Russia is by constructing huge airfields and naval bases in the Mediterranean and North Africa.

Ambassador Dunn has been instructed to find out where the usually reliable Le Monde got its information.

"Ridiculous! They Don't Know How to Vote"

Thousands Of Children Now Walk, Restored In Shriner's Hospitals

This little girl, now returned to her home in Escanaba, will some day walk again. For the past six months she has been receiving surgical treatment in Shriner's Hospital, Chicago, and she will go back again in two or three years for more treatment—and then she will be able to walk without the aid of crutches or braces.

She is one of thousands of youngsters who have been restored in Shriner's Hospitals for Crippled Children, and one of several from Escanaba and Delta county who have received treatment in hospitals maintained by the Ancient Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

Perhaps some day, besides being able to walk, she will be able to run, to jump and play games like other children of her age—thanks to free treatment to crippled children established by the Shriners in 17 hospitals in the United States, Hawaii, Canada and Mexico.

Only Two Questions

This free treatment is offered to crippled children of every race and creed—and only two questions are asked.

"Can the parents pay for medical treatment?" If they cannot, and many parents are unable to meet the cost of long months of surgery and therapy necessary to correct the crippling condition, the child is admitted.

"Can the child benefit by treatment at the hospital?" This question is answered by the hospital's medical staff—and if the answer is "yes" the child is admitted.

Shriners have invested more than $50,000,000 in the hospitals and their endowments, and it costs them $3,500,000 a year to maintain them.

Serves Six States

The first of the Shriner's hospitals was opened in Shreveport, Louisiana, in 1922.

Today the Shriner's Hospitals in Chicago is the only one hundred per cent charitable crippled children's hospital in Illinois; it is approved by the American College of Surgeons, and as a teaching hospital for orthopedic surgery by the American Medical Association.

The Chicago unit serves six states, including Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Wisconsin, Iowa and Michigan. Some cases from Escanaba have been treated at Shriner's Hospital in Minneapolis, according to a custom permitting admission of children from any state to any hospital.

In the Chicago hospital are both white and Negro children. There are Catholic, Protestant and Jewish children. In all the hospitals far fewer than 1 per cent of the patients have been children of Shriners. The hospitals admit patients up to 14 years of age.

HAVING LESSONS calls for special desks and chairs to accommodate the youngsters. Schooling is important for the children who spend months in the hospital.

Play and School

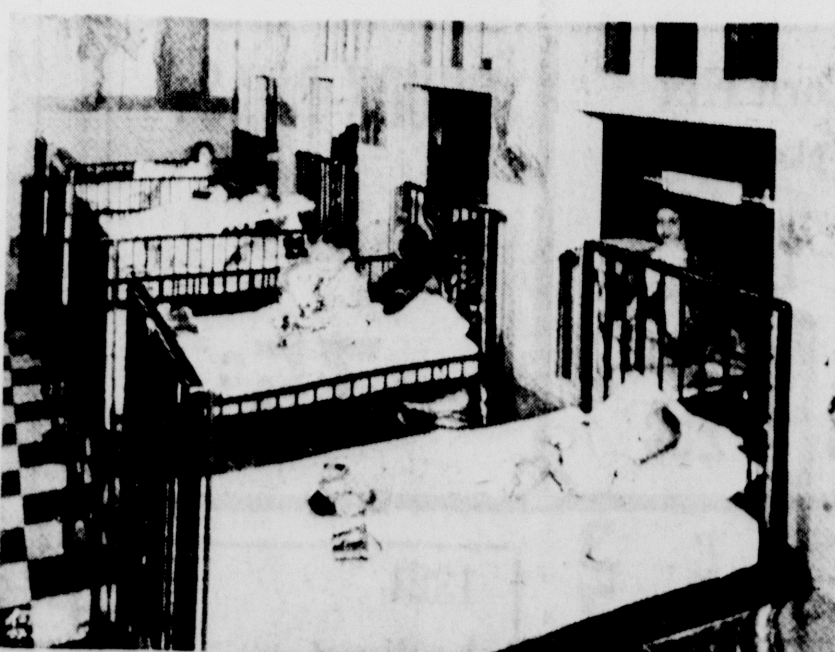

Because many of the children must stay in the hospital for months (the average is three to four months) the hospital has its own school.

The little girl from Escanaba attended classes in a hospital school maintained and operated by the Chicago board of education and staffed by three teachers. Her stay of six months in the hospital would have been much too long to have her studies halted for that period.

Some of the children recite from wheelchairs, and some—less fortunate—from "cripple carts" where they must stay flat on their stomach or back. All of the children, whether in school or in the wards, are apparently happy and well-adjusted to hospital life.

When the young girl from Escanaba returns to Chicago in June for a checkup her progress toward recovery will be noted. Still later she will have additional treatments to further correct her condition.

And some day she will leave the hospital to walk alone, without crutches or other aids—another among the thousands of children who have been released from the role of the handicapped.

THE "SMILING" WARD—Children adjust quickly to life in the hospital and seem to recover more quickly than adults do, according to the nurses.

Good Evening...

By CLINT DUNATHAN

YOU AND GOVERNMENT—Sometimes the private citizen may feel that he has small voice in government, that his influence is confined to casting a vote, and that "politicians" control government.

Government in this republic is government by the people, and the people are represented by elected or appointed public officials who are called politicians—and sometimes worse.

All too often the people do not realize the necessity for politics in government and angrily demand less politics.

Actually the removal of politics (not only party politics but the politics of special interest groups) would end government as we know it in the United States.

THEY REPRESENT YOU—From the local to the state and federal levels there is politics in government.

Sometimes at the local and state levels certain judicial posts and some city councils and commissions are elected on non-partisan ballots. This does not mean the offices are non-political, but simply that the candidates are not labeled with a recognized political party name.

What we are trying to explain is that politics cannot always be identified with a political party—but the necessity for politics in the operation of government by the people is there nonetheless.

What is worth noting is that through politics people have a voice in government. Remove politics and politicians and you remove the voice of the people.

MEETING THE NEED—Without politics there would not be the opportunity for special interests to make their desires and programs known.

These "special interests" are not always bad for the people, although opposing "special interests" will try to make it so appear.

How would the farmers of America fare if they removed themselves from "politics"? Or organized labor? Or the good roads group? Or the national manufacturers? Would they still have a voice in government if they kept out of "politics"?

Almost any group that can be named uses politics and politicians in efforts to advance its cause. How successful they are in their efforts depends in large measure upon their political ability—using the word politics in its broadest sense.

DOOR IS OPEN—It is necessary to emphasize that politics in government is not in itself bad.

Sometimes the forces or the policies motivating political activity are bad—but the activity itself is an integral part of government by the people.

Remove this opportunity for political activity and gone also is the opportunity for forces of progress, of good, of humanity, to make themselves heard.

The alternative is autocracy and despotism in which political activity issues solely from the rulers in government.

MORE, NOT LESS—The need is for more, not less, politics in the United States. Citizens must be aroused to increased political activity. It is necessary to voice convictions as well as to vote for them.

Situations in government that are considered harmful cannot be corrected by refusing to participate in "dirty politics."

If politics is "dirty" then it is the responsibility of the people to clean it up. This is impossible unless the people participate in political activity on the side of reform. To be silent and submissive under misrule is to consent to it.

Power With Words

By Dr. C. E. Funk

KNOWLEDGE THROUGH ONE'S FINGERS

The Latin "prehendere" means to grasp, seize, take hold of. Through its participle, "prehensum," we have the common word "prehensile" (pri-HEN-sil), which has the meaning adapted for grasping or seizing. Though we don't often use it in speaking of the fingers of man, we do sometimes say that a person has "prehensile" toes, if that person is able to grasp objects with his toes. Chiefly, however, "prehensile" is applied to the lower animals, and especially to those, such as the monkeys, with "prehensile" tails.

The noun "apprehension" (AP-ri-HEN-shun) and the adjective "apprehensive" (AP-ri-HEN-siv) usually, though not always, carry an impression of fear, dread, or uneasiness. "Misapprehend" and "misapprehension" denote failure of understanding.

Something that we "apprehend" (AP-ri-HEND) we lay hold of, from "ad," to, and "prehendo." This may be something that we lay hold of or grasp with the mind, or understand, often with fear or dread; as, "Further rioting is apprehended." More often, however, we use it in the literal sense of seizing physically; as, "The thief was quickly apprehended."

We are more likely to use "comprehend" (COM-pre-HEND) when we mean things grasped with the mind, though, unlike "apprehend," nothing of fear or dread is implied. That which we "comprehend" we understand; literally, we take it in fully. From it comes "comprehension" (COM-pri-HEN-shun), full understanding, and "comprehensive" (COM-pri-HEN-siv), meaning of large scope.

Although the Latin "prehendere" was often used in its literal sense, to hold back (from "re," back), its more frequent use was with the meaning to check or restrain, and, therefore, to rebuke or find fault with. The latter is the one carried by our word "reprehend" (REP-ri-HEND), the last of this series. When we "reprehend" a person, we scold him severely, giving it a much stronger sense than is conveyed by "rebuke" or "reprimand." And one whose conduct is "reprehensible" (REP-ri-HEN-si-bl) has behaved outrageously.

A man pleaded insanity after proposing to 11 girls. Getting out of such a mess would drive anybody crazy.

Perhaps all mothers would like to tell their daughters that a dishwasher in Tennessee inherited $5,000.

Potter's Campaign Road Less Bumpy

THE decision of Donald S. Leonard, former State Police commissioner, to become a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor has come as a mild surprise to the political observers.

It was known, of course, that Leonard was considering his candidacy either for the U. S. Senate or for the governorship but most observers leaned to the belief that he would seek the Senate seat.

In all probability, Leonard would have filed for the Senate job except for the candidacy of Charles E. Potter, of Cheboygan. Leonard's decision to avoid a contest with Potter is, of course, a decided break for the 11th district congressman because it makes Potter's road less bumpy.

It appears now that the contest for the GOP senatorial nomination will be a three-man field, comprising Potter, John B. Martin, Jr., and former Lt. Gov. Eugene Keyes. In this field Potter is generally regarded as the strongest candidate and the likely winner for the right to meet Sen. Blair Moody in the general election in November.

Leonard's candidacy for the Republican nomination for governor is one that is certain to be met with much approval around the state. The former police commissioner is popular with the people of the state and he has an excellent record of achievement in his long service with the Michigan State Police.

Horsemeat hamburgers resulted in a fine for a Trenton, N. J., butcher. The wrong thing to be dobbing' in!

UNCLE EF

Those three daughters of California Governor Warren make about as pretty a picture together as you'll see in a long time. If they all sing, and Warren should be elected president, the governor will have a chance to get three times as mad at critics as Mr. Truman, if he has that sort of disposition.

The Doctor Says... Prostate Gland Condition Can Become Serious if Neglected

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. — Written for NEA Service

A man who says that his age is 71 writes that he has observed that many older men develop a prostate condition, and says that he has some reluctance for an operation if he can be avoided. He also asks if a cure can be achieved in the early stage of infection.

It seems probable that this correspondent is somewhat confused between infections of the prostate gland, which are more likely to occur in younger men, and the frequent enlargement of the gland without infection, which is a frequent penalty of growing older. It is the latter condition which will be discussed in this column.

The prostate is a sex gland lying in the neck, or outlet of the bladder. When it enlarges too much, it presses on a portion of the lower urinary apparatus and can cause difficulty. Indeed, the most frequent symptoms of such enlargement is the necessity for frequent urination.

This is likely to be particularly troublesome at night and its effect in disturbing sleep can be most annoying. Another common early symptom of prostatic enlargement is delay or difficulty in beginning urination. Such symptoms as these start gradually but tend to get slowly worse. The amount of pain, irritation and local discomfort caused by enlargement of the prostate varies from person to person. There is also some danger of the development of kidney trouble because of the back pressure from the urine held in the bladder.

The complications of an enlargement of the prostate gland can be serious. Those who have symptoms should not neglect them until serious harm to the kidneys or bladder itself has been done.

Perhaps sometime a method will be discovered of preventing prostate enlargement or of treating it with hormones or drugs. Although studies along these lines have been made, at present surgery is usually the preferred method of treatment.

NOTHING TO FEAR

Several different and good methods of operating on the prostate gland aimed at removing some of the excess tissue and relieving the symptoms are available. These are done frequently and successfully and should not be too much feared.

Enlargement of the prostate is really a normal accompaniment of getting older. It is not a disease, though it may result in serious symptoms. If old age could be prevented, doubtless this difficulty also would be avoided.

H. R. Hitchings Dies Suddenly

Hubert Roosevelt Hitchings, 51, of Escanaba Route One, a partner in the Escanaba Concrete Corporation, died yesterday afternoon shortly after he was taken by ambulance to St. Francis Hospital. He suffered a heart attack while at work at 9:30 a. m., and a second fatal attack at his home at 1:30 p. m.

Oxygen was administered at the hospital and a neolator manned by Escanaba firemen was used in an unsuccessful effort to revive the heart attack victim.

Mr. Hitchings was born in Crescent City, Ill., Oct. 31, 1900. He was a member of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce, the Blue Lodge of the Masonic Order, 591, F. & A. M., Gilman, Ill., and the United Commercial Travelers of Escanaba.

The body was taken to the Anderson funeral home where friends may call Friday afternoon and evening. It will be shipped Saturday morning to the Crane funeral home in Batavia, Ill., where services will be held Monday afternoon.

BIRDS EYE BASSWOOD goes into the construction of these window Lattisdrapes, an innovation in window furnishings — marking another of the multiple uses of veneer. Sheet of thin basswood are contracted from the local Birds Eye Veneer Company by the manufacturing firm which uses them for the narrow wooden strips in their new Lattisdrapes (horizontal roller shades) and Lattisdrapes (vertical slide curtains). Turning out the raw material on the cutting machine at the local plant (below) are Lawrence J. Billy, Joseph Madalinski and Fred Menard. The manufacturers began using the Birds Eye product last year as an experiment, which since then has developed into a highly successful project.

MacArthur Visits Michigan Arsenal

grin, "but I hope it helps you."

The General and Mrs. MacArthur were presented with a bouquet by six-year-old blonde, Carol Jean Wagenvoort, daughter of the mayor of East Lansing.

Gen. MacArthur will sidetrack briefly to appear before a women's luncheon in the M. S. C. Union building, where Mrs. MacArthur has, meanwhile, been the guest of honor.

Then comes a big parade down Lansing's Michigan Avenue to the Capitol. The parade is scheduled to start at 3:30 p. m.

School children and state employees are being excused to attend the parade. Police, 200 strong, are prepared for a crowd of 100,000. Led by M.S.C.'s crack military band, the parade will include 3,500 M.S.C. ROTC students, 19 high school bands, veterans units and Dutch girls in costume from Holland.

Address Over Radio

High school bands will be there from Lansing, East Lansing, Jackson, Mason, Williamston, Eaton Rapids, Leslie, Grand Blanc, Durand, Haslett, Edmore, Grand Ledge and Deckerville.

More than 800 legislators and guests, all on special invitation, will hear MacArthur's main address this evening. His remarks will be broadcast nationally (CBS) at 10:30 p. m. (EST).

A force of security officers have laid strict rules for the protection of the general and for the unusually-large crowd to use the ornate House chamber.

No one will be admitted above the basement floor without a pass, there will be no smoking in the Capitol and fire engines will stand by in the outer driveways for fear of fire in the 74-year-old Capitol.

MacArthur will leave Lansing Friday by motorcade. He will make brief stops at Webberville (7:45 a. m.), Fowlerville (8:05 a. m.), Howell (8:30 a. m.), Brighton (9 a. m.), Ann Arbor (9:45 a. m.), Ypsilanti (10:25 a. m.), Wayne (10:55 a. m.), Dearborn (11:55 a. m.), Detroit limits (11:35 a. m.), and Detroit City Hall, (12:25 p. m.).

FLAGS DECK CAPITOL LANSING.—(P)—A carnival atmosphere prevailed this Capitol city today as it entertained General of the Army Douglas MacArthur, here at the invitation of the State Legislature.

The massive and antique State Capitol was gayly decked in bunting and national and state flags, the streets were lined with flags, and school children and state employees celebrated the occasion with a half-holiday.

The pack of local dignitaries assembled to meet the MacArthur party at the airport was swelled by about 1,000 respectful curious.

There was a shout of approval as the gapers saw that MacArthur was in full uniform, complete with his battered "scrambled eggs" campaign hat.

The greeters had been worrying because of the rumor that MacArthur was going to appear in dull, conventional civilian garb. Photographers popped bulbs like popcorn and the start of the motorcade was delayed by their frequent appeals for "just one more, general."

MacArthur was smiling and gracious to all and everyone within in seeing distance commented on the warmth of his personality.

The general's party and state and city dignitaries were transported throughout the day in nine especially-built Oldsmobile open-top convertibles. Painted varied gay colors, the convertibles were all resplendent with white-leather upholstery.

Drivers, noting the darkened skies that threatened rain, were ready to roll the tops over at a moment's notice.

Liquor Stocks At Record High

WASHINGTON.—(P)—Government officials said today price controls on liquor probably will be lifted soon because the industry faces a critical situation caused by over-supply and a sharp drop in sales.

No rise in retail prices is expected when controls are suspended.

The Office of Price Stabilization controls suspension committee has been studying the matter and is understood to be nearing a decision.

The public has shown a reluctance to buy liquor at prices asked since the federal tax was boosted $1.50 per gallon last Nov. 1 to a total of $10.50.

Officials said consumers are turning to cheaper priced beer and wine.

Officials said the drop in liquor sales has complicated matters all the way down to the distilleries, which now have on hand probably record stocks.

At the end of March, the inventory in Internal Revenue bonded warehouses totalled about 768 million gallons of straight whiskey.

OPS estimated this supply would last eight years and could be stretched to 12 years or more if the liquor is blended with grain in neutral spirits.

Present stocks compare with about 720 million gallons one year ago and World War II low of 374 million gallons in 1945.

Citizens Contribute Books To Burned-Out State Prison Library

JACKSON, Mich.—(P)—Several hundred books already have been contributed in response to the Jackson Citizen-Patriot's campaign to restock library shelves at Southern Michigan prison.

About 21,000 books were destroyed by rioting prisoners in the big April mutiny.

Warden Julian Frisbie said the prison needs books of general interest—fiction, history, culture and education.

More Cops Fired

NEW YORK.—(P)—Four more policemen were fired today after being found guilty of accepting graft from bookmaker Harry Gross. This brought to five the number of policemen ousted as a result of Gross' testimony that he had policemen on his payroll to protect his $20 million dollar a year bookmaking empire.

Obituary

FR. JOSEPH O'NEILL IISHPEMING, Mich.—Funeral services for Father Joseph Leo O'Neill, 66, retired Catholic priest who died Tuesday afternoon in Marquette, will be held Friday morning at St. John's church here. Fr. O'Neill was a cousin of Mrs. William Flynn of Escanaba.

Leading U. S. Rabbi Dies In Detroit

DETROIT.—(P)—Dr. B. Benedict Glazer, Rabbi of Temple Beth El here and a prominent figure in American Jewry died today of a cerebral hemorrhage.

He was 49 years old. Ordained a Rabbi in 1926, Dr. Glazer came here to Temple Beth El in 1941 after serving in New York and Pittsburgh.

He served as president of the Wayne county chapter of the Michigan Society for Mental Hygiene in 1949, and as chairman of the Social Action Commission in Pittsburgh, Pa., where he was arbitrator in many industrial disputes.

Funeral services will be held Sunday (2:30 p. m.) in Temple Beth El. Burial will be in Beth El Memorial Park.

Sweetheart Of I. C. Dies In Memphis, Tenn.

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—(P)—Death has ended the hard-luck story of Minnie Rose Webb, 19-year-old sweetheart of the Illinois Central railroaders.

Minnie died yesterday. In 1942 an appendicitis operation left her a crippled invalid. Railroaders soon noticed her waving to passing trains from a front porch chair at her home near Covington, Tenn.

Seven years ago conductor J. W. McNamara stopped a freight train to say hello, and saw Minnie's plight.

Soon afterwards the railroaders sent the young girl to St. Louis, where noted surgeons operated on her at the Shriners' Hospital for Crippled Children.

Even so, Minnie could never walk for long without pain. A little more than a month ago she was stricken with meningitis, and yesterday she died.

Army Buys Cherries

TRAVERSE CITY.—(P)—Four packing firms here have an order from the army for $504,000 of canned cherries from this year's crop.

'Bill Of Rights' Up For New Gls

WASHINGTON.—(P)—A new G. I. "Bill of Rights" — giving benefits of about one billion dollars a year to the nation's new military veterans—advanced a step in Congress today.

It was approved by the House veterans committee late yesterday. Chairman Rankin (D-Miss) said he would seek a House vote as soon as possible.

The measure would provide benefits to all personnel who entered the armed forces after June 27, 1950 and received other than dishonorable discharges. It carries no expiration date.

Benefits include: Monthly payments of $110 for single veterans and $150 for married veterans for a maximum of 36 months of education or training at qualified schools.

Loan guarantees up to $7,500 for veteran home buyers, as provided in the World War II GI bill, with a new requirement—builders or sellers will have to give one year warranties on the properties.

The bill does not include pay for unemployed veterans as did the World War II bill. Unemployed veterans of the last war could obtain $20 a week benefits for 52 weeks, a provision which attracted widespread criticism.

Transit Fares Go Up Sixth Time In Chicago

CHICAGO.—(P)—Cash fares on Chicago's elevated and elevated-subway lines are going up again—to 20 cents on June 1. The hikes are the sixth since the Chicago Transit Authority took over the transportation lines in 1947. The new fares are believed among the highest in the country.

Present fares are 17 cents for street cars and buses and 18 cents for elevated-subway trains. The CTA said tokens will be sold at present fares, five for 85 cents for street car and bus rides and five for 90 cents for elevated and subway trains.

Small Tug Wrecked

TRAVERSE CITY.—(P)—The Maier Dredging Co. of California lost another ship Thursday in Grand Traverse bay in heavy weather. A small tug broke loose from its moorings and was pounded to pieces on a seawall. One of the company's dredges sank in the bay last week. The company is building a scenic section of U.S-31 overlooking the bay.

fully prepared to manufacture propaganda for the purpose of belauding the whole prisoner-of-war issue at Panmunjom (truce) negotiations.

Washington Aroused "General Colson's authority to deal with the prisoners in compound 76 did not extend to authority for him to purport to accept any of the vicious and false charges upon which the Communist demands were based."

The Colson agreement, under which the POWs released Dodd Saturday night, is under heavy fire in Washington. The U. S. military command and some Congressmen declared it implies the U. N. Command treated prisoners of war in inhumane fashion. All echelons of the U. N. Command say this isn't so.

Statements which drew particular censure, and which North Korean Gen. Nam Il seized upon for new verbal attacks on the Allies in Panmunjom truce talks, were: "Many prisoners of war have been killed or wounded by United Nations forces." Prisoners "can expect humane treatment in the future." "There will be no more forcible screening."

Old Hand In Command American authorities quickly stated: Prisoners have been killed only in riots instigated by the Communist prisoners themselves; prisoners have been treated humanely; and there never has been "forcible screening" to determine whether prisoners want to go back to Red rule.

The Colson agreement also provided for prisoner committees. Clark's repudiation was expected to have prompt repercussion in armistice negotiations and on the Communist radio.

Colson has been returned to his old command as chief of staff of the First Army Corps in Korea and Dodd is back with U. S. Eighth Army headquarters.

Rebellious Koje prison camp is now under command of an old China hand, Brig. Gen. Haydon Boatner. He relieved Colson Tuesday.

Clark got a first hand account of the kidnapping and release of Dodd from the two former prison camp commandants yesterday. Clark said:

"Speculative press reports to the effect that General Dodd and Colson were verbally reprimanded by me at this conference are totally without foundation."

By WILLIAM JORDEN KOJE ISLAND, Korea.—(P)—The outspoken new commandant of Koje Island said today "you're damned right" there will be changes in running this turbulent war prison camp, but "no sudden revolutionary change."

After 24 hours on the job, Brig. Gen. Haydon Boatner said he thought Communist prisoners had been treated too leniently.

Had he seen anything that need to be changed?

"You're damned right I've spotted some things," he said. "For one thing I don't like those insulting signs and the flags and the demands."

The signs were insulting to the United Nations command and the U. S. stockades holding 79,000 prisoners of war. The demands were those made for the release of former Camp Commander Brig. Gen. Francis T. Dodd. Brig. Gen. Charles F. Colson was removed as commandant when he agreed to some of them. His promises were disavowed by the U. N. command today.

Boatner, the 14th officer to hold the camp commander post in 16 months, said:

"This is one of the toughest jobs in the army, right here."

"One of my big jobs is to make certain the POWs know the Geneva convention. And I've got to make sure they know it from me, not from someone out there."

He pointed toward the stockades, ruled by shrewd, thoroughly indoctrinated Communists.

part of the fairgrounds and buildings.

Democrats in the House, who have enough votes to block a two-thirds majority, stuck together firmly to prevent overriding of five gubernatorial vetoes of House bills and one veto of a line item.

The line item veto voided an appropriation of $340,000 from hunting and fishing license money to pay the 10 cents an acre tax the state pays to local governments on state land in northern Michigan.

The appropriation endangered nearly $1,000,000 the state gets annually from the federal government for game and fish work and was bitterly opposed by sportsmen.

The Republican leadership avoided a show-down by laying the veto on the table.

Sustained also were vetoes of bills calling a constitutional convention, replacing the sales tax on liquor with a three per cent service charge, taxing property of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, splitting an Upper Peninsula judicial circuit into two and removing the requirement for publication of board of equalization determinations of state and local taxes.

Damages Suit Opens In Court

A damages suit for injuries received in a fall on the premises of the defendants by Mrs. Frances Foster, 69, formerly of Kalama-zoo, was begun in jury trial this morning in Circuit Court.

The amount of compensation being asked for her loss in income and for physical harm is $5,000.

The plaintiff charges, in the statement made by her attorney Richard W. Nebel of Munising, that because of injuries received when she slipped and fell on an icy driveway on the motel court of Esther and Arthur Nickols of Gladstone, she has been unable to conduct her business as a manufacturer and saleswoman of an eye-glasses cleaner and has consequently lost her source of income from that enterprise. She claims the injuries to her back and head have caused her much pain and suffering and extensive medical expense.

These were the contentions which the plaintiff's attorney stated would be supported by the evidence to be presented by him in the case.

Defendants' counsel, Atty. Robert E. LeMire, declined to make an opening statement, stating that he would reserve his statement until later in the trial.

The accident occurred on Jan.

Wall Street

By RADER WINGET NEW YORK.—(P)—A pronounced sag in the stock market today carried most major divisions lower.

Losses amounted to nearly 2 points at the outside in active areas with some pushing past that limit. The bulk of the minus signs came to fractions to around a point. Infrequent plus signs were scattered and small.

Lower were steels, motors, rubbers, aircrafts, radio-television issues, chemicals, and most rails and oils.

Utilities held steady as did non-ferrous metals, air lines, and building materials.

The latter group derived some help from relaxation of building restrictions by the National Production Authority.

Losses were shown by New York Central, U. S. Steel, Chrysler, Sinclair Oil, Goodrich, American Cyanamid, Douglas Aircraft, and General Electric.

The decision of the CIO Steelworkers Union yesterday not to work indefinitely without a contract threw a cloud of uncertainty over the stock market. As was the case in previous steel production curtailment, almost every major industry was affected.

The 15-cent an hour ceiling put on the wage demands of the 90,000 striking oil refinery and pipeline workers pointed the dispute toward a settlement. Oil stocks gave little or no immediate reaction to the news that developed yesterday after the market closed.

Prison Officials Get Tough With Inmate Rebels At Jackson

(By The Associated Press)

Southern Michigan prison officials announced a "get-tough" policy with inmate troublemakers who try to fan the embers of the recent riot which caused heavy damage to the big prison.

The stern warning came from Warden Julian N. Frisbie as he commented on minor new outbreaks which plagued the prison over the weekend.

"The situation at the prison is absolutely under control, despite minor difficulties in two cell-blocks," the former marine general declared.

Agitators Locked Up

The warden added bluntly: "We are making no deals with the convicts. We are going to be tough on troublemakers and they know it."

Frisbie said of the weekend incidents, most of which occurred in cellblock 9, with an additional few in No. 12.

"What is not understood by many is that we deliberately put some men in No. 9. These agitators are kept locked in their cells and all they can do is yell, bang their cells and throw their food trays onto the floor."

"They're getting away with it now because we have concentrated on getting the rest of the prison back to normal."

"When this is done, we'll take care of those boys in No. 9 block the way they should be handled."

Honorary Knighthood Given 70 Americans I Peerage Handbook

LONDON — (AP) — Some 70 Americans made the grade today as knights—on paper at least—in DeBrett's Peerage. That is Britain's blue-blood handbook which up to now has screened out honorary "Sirs."

In the past DeBrett's has not listed honorary knights. But editor C. F. Hankinson thawed out this year at the suggestion of Douglas Fairbank Jr., a film star knighted for wartime service with British forces.

Among the Americans listed in the 1952 edition of the famed reference work are Generals Dwight D. Eisenhower, Douglas MacArthur and George C. Marshall.

However, they won't be Sir Dwight or Sir Douglas. The knight doesn't use the title unless he's dubbed—tapped on the shoulder as he kneels—by the king, and that's not done for the honorary knight-hoods.

"The bestowment of their honors is a pleasing sign of the ever increasing bond between our two great countries," said Hankinson.

The Chronicle began in 1781, the year of Lord Cornwallis' surrender at Yorktown. It now contains about 50,000 names.

They'll behave or else...." he added grimly.

Convict Files Suit

Frisbie's statements came amidst three new developments in the prison situation:

1.—At Lansing, the governor's fact-finding committee reported the riot was not "a riot of protest" but rather the result of an "atmosphere made highly explosive by violent internal tensions."

2.—The state made preliminary moves to commit Earl Ward, co-leader of the April mutiny, to the Ionia state hospital for the criminally insane.

3.—A Southern Michigan prison inmate filed a circuit court action at Jackson seeking to force the governor, Warden Frisbie and corrections commissioner Earnest C. Brooks to live up to the terms of the truce settlement which ended the bloody rioting.

Gust Pappas, who was committed to serve a 15-30 year term for assault with intent to rob, claimed in his circuit court action that he had "been denied certain privileges since the riots and that these denials amount to reprisals."

Pappas contended he had denied use of the prison yard and dining halls, that he had been served only two meals a day since the riots and that he had had no bath since then. He further charged that some of the prison library lawbooks, supposedly burned in the fire, actually had been confiscated by prison officials.

There was some question whether Pappas' suit would have any legal standing since he did not file the required $6 filing fee with the papers.

Prison officials had no immediate comment on his charges.

Grand Marais Junior Prom

About a hundred people witnessed the results of weeks of hard work on the part of the Junior Class of Grand Marais High School at their annual Junior Prom. The highlight of the evening was the clever decorating scheme which was a turn from the usual frill of crepe paper streamers. The gym was simply but effectively decorated around the theme of an outdoor garden party setting. Around the sides, a short picket fence set apart the dancing floor from the rest of the gym. On each side of the gym were small trellises for entrance ways onto the dance floor, while on one end another large trellis was set up as a snack-bar, where hot dogs and pop were served throughout the evening. Each of the three trellises were bordered with small cedar trees and were entwined with ivy to add to the out-of-doors atmosphere. Around the border of the floor were set up card tables for the weary dancers and well-wishing spectators. Centered on the dance floor was a large fountain that spouted water most of the evening, and once again added to the out-of-door garden effect. The party lasted from nine to one, while young and old alike enjoyed dancing and listening to the music of the Fred Gorsche Orchestra from Manistique. Members of the decorating committee were: Carol Roberts, president of the junior class, James Carter, Bill Bailey, Bob Niemi, Ken McDonald, Guy

Block and Alan Hebert.

Area Meeting in Detroit

Lewis McFall, chief communicator of the Grand Marais Airport, left Tuesday to attend an area meeting of the Detroit Area Traffic Control. The meeting is being held in Detroit at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel and will be attended by the Chief Communicators of 22 CAA Stations and Personnel from the Regional Headquarters of the Third Region CAA which covers an area of six states. The Grand Marais Airport was recently made a controlled airway and also connected to a nationwide weather teletype circuit with hourly broadcasts of the weather. The station also received new VHF, receiving and transmitting equipment. Mr. McFall motored as far as Sault Ste. Marie where he and the other two Chief Communicators from the Upper Peninsula, Houghton and Sault Ste. Marie, took a plane to Detroit. The meeting will be held Wednesday and Thursday.

Hurt In Fall

Mrs. Wilhelmina Erickson suffered a broken hip as the result of a fall last Friday. She was taken to Munising Hospital by ambulance and from there will be taken to St. Lukes in Marquette.

Harlan Yellands Observing Silver Wedding Friday

Attorney and Mrs. Harlan J. Yelland, widely known residents of Escanaba, will observe their silver wedding anniversary Friday, May 16.

Their wedding took place in Ann Arbor where Mr. Yelland received his degree from the University of Michigan Law School and Mrs. Yelland was a member of the staff of the University Hospital. They moved to Escanaba a few years later.

Their family includes three sons, Judd, the namesake of his grandfather, the late Judd Yelland, who was Judge of Probate in Delta County many years, Harlan and Robert.

Mrs. Yelland is the former Edith McCrea of Kenora, Ontario, Canada.

This Idea Gets Kiddies to Drink More Milk...

By MARY MANNING

Here's a way to get your children to drink more milk. It's a way so simple you'll find it hard to believe—but it really works. Try it. Simply set cold FAIRMONT MILK on the table by the pitcherful.

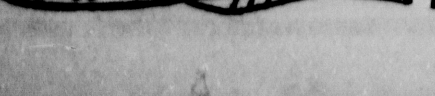

There's something about having a pitcher of ice cold FAIRMONT MILK on the table that makes the children ask for "seconds."

And everyone—adults and teenagers, as well as the younger children—should drink several glasses of this nourishing food every day. Doctors tell us we never outgrow our need for milk.

Once you taste a glass of cold, fresh FAIRMONT MILK, I'm sure you'll say, "Here at last is milk that's really delicious and refreshing."

FAIRMONT MILK has a deep-down creamy goodness that pleases—satisfies—refreshes.

It's the "GROW" Food—it's the "GO" Food. Compare FAIRMONT with any other milk. See what folks mean when they say FAIRMONT is the best milk in town.

Should Parents Set Up Their Own Standards?

By Elizabeth B. Hurlock, Ph.D.

Every parent has a right to bring up her children as she thinks best. But, when her standards are so distinctly different from those of other parents, is she being fair to her children when she refuses to modify her standards to be more in line with standards of other parents? That is the problem that is facing the young teenage girl who wrote:

(Q) "I am nearly 16 and my parents are strict. I can't go to any parties if there are boys. Whenever I go, I have to be the first to leave. I can't even go dancing at our parish church. I feel awful when I tell my girl friends I can't go here or there. I tried talking to my mother but she just won't listen. She says she will run her house the way she wants to and let the other parents run theirs the way they want to. I don't think this is fair to me, do you?"

(A) No, I do not think it is fair to a teenager to make her so different that she feels inferior or to deprive her of the fun her friends are having. I am sure your mother does not realize how her strict standards are influencing you.

Like any mother, your mother is trying to bring you up in the best way she knows how. I do not understand why she does not approve of your going to church or school parties, or why she does not allow you to go to any parties where there are boys. You are quite old enough to associate with boys socially if you go to school with them.

Since one of the places she will not permit you to go is to the parties at your church, you have a good excuse for talking to your minister about this matter. He could then talk to your mother. If he told her that the church parties are well chaperoned, she might see the matter in a different light.

He might also be able to convince her that she is depriving you of the good times your friends are having and make her realize that she is being unnecessarily strict with you. Surely she respects her minister's judgement enough that she will listen to him even if you can make no headway when you talk to her.

Have you ever asked any of the boys you know to come to your home to meet your parents? If your parents had an opportunity to know the boys you want to go out with, they might change

Carnegie Library Again Sponsoring Reading Club

The Children's Department of Carnegie Public Library again will sponsor its annual summer reading club for boys and girls it was announced today.

The club, planned to encourage children to keep up their reading ability and to provide reading pleasure during the vacation months will be known this summer as the Trail Blazers' Reading Club. It is open to boys and girls from the 4th through the 8th grade. Registration for membership will run from June 2 through June 30.

Each member will receive a paper tree and a reading record card. The tree will be posted in the Children's Room of the library, and the record card will be kept at the librarian's desk in the same room.

The requirements are that members must read 10 books of their own choice, at or above their own grade level. This reading must be done between June 2 and June 30. For each book read, the member will receive a blaze mark on the tree bearing the reader's name. At the end of the club membership period awards will be made to those who have completed the requirements.

Average enrollment each summer for Escanaba has been approximately 100 boys and girls. Average circulation of books for the club is about 1600.

Don't Let Life's Physical Changes Frighten You

This is the fourth of six articles by a noted woman medical adviser who shows women the sound and sensible approach to middle age. Dr. Adele Streese-man is an authority on psycho-somatic medicine and has also practiced industrial medicine and served as a psychiatric consultant.

By Adele E. Streese-man, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

Perhaps the most frightening aspect of middle age to the majority of women, is the physical one. They feel that it signals the end of physical attractiveness, alertness and that it brings that terrifying change called menopause.

Actually, it need not mean the end of any of these things. As for the so-called "change of life," life is full of changes, from childhood through adolescence through maturity and on. We can't escape it.

Doctors generally know much more about the menopause and how to deal with it than they did in your mother's day or even a decade ago. They know more about bringing women through it with the least physical discomfort and with a maximum of safety. So, don't listen to the old wives' tales about this period in your life.

Adjustments Simple
It does bring physiological and li adjustments that can't be avoided. But the woman who has her emotional life on a sound basis, who has real friends in her husband and her children, has little to worry about.

The menopause brings on nervous breakdowns only when it requires adjustments of women who have been incapable of making the all their lives.

The other physical aspect of the middle years — outward appearance — is one that many women worry about to a point of hysteria. Age, there's no need.

This day of sound and scientific facts, it's ridiculous for any woman who's in the middle years to cry around unattractiveness, excess pounds. The theory that extra pounds at this time of life are healthy has been exploded. There are far from healthy.

Keep the Weight Down
Your weight at 30 should also be your weight at 40 and at 50 and 60, generally speaking. And your mental attitude toward your appearance at middle-age should not be sloppy one. Added years are no excuse for "letting yourself go." You're just as alive, just as important to yourself and others at 50 as you are at 25.

Yes, you need not lose your figure, you can dress becomingly and smartly, you can be attractive, groomed. You should not try to remain, in appearance, exactly what you were at twenty. We see, every day, women who have just this and, of course, fail.

Buncheon do you need to settle into a "I-don't-care-how-I-look" kind of slump and resign yourself to heavy black oxfords, shapeless black coats and streaked, faded hair. American women have every possible beauty help at their command. So, resigning yourself to a dowd, frumpy middle-age is definitely unnecessary and foolish from every point of view.

Chicken Is An Outstanding Food Buy At Present

Fried, roasted, broiled or stewed—chicken's an all-around favorite on the American dinner table. With a heavy market supply, excellent quality and reasonable prices, it is also an outstanding food buy says Mary Bodwell, food economist of the agricultural economics department, Michigan State College.

Broilers or broiler-fryers will be most abundant. These birds are young, tender, soft-meated chickens weighing from 2 to 3½ pounds. As a general rule these birds are marketed ready to cook—either whole, cut up, or individual pieces, either fresh or frozen. It is possible on some markets to buy live chicken or dressed, not drawn, chicken.

Price per pound of ready-to-cook chicken will be higher than for live or feather dressed birds. The cost of ready-to-eat chicken will be about twenty-five percent higher than the feather dressed because of the amount of waste.

Chicken is quite perishable and when brought home should be placed immediately in the refrigerator meat container or close to the freezing unit. To keep chicken more than a couple days, freezing is best. Frozen chicken may be thawed in the refrigerator or at room temperature. Soaking in water should be avoided.

Chicken may be cooked in such a variety of ways that folks need never tire of eating it, says Miss Bodwell. Chicken chowder, paprika chicken, southern fried, barbecue, broiled, and friend chicken are suggestions for variety. Remember to cook chicken slowly and at a low temperature for that tasty, juicy flavor. Too high temperature will give a dry, tough and less flavorful dish. Turning occasionally with tongs makes for even browning, prevents broken skin and loss of juices.

Horizon Clubs Conference At Sault Ste. Marie

The executive council of the Bay de Noc Camp Fire Girls, meeting Tuesday evening, considered near future activities of the groups in the area and in particular the conference for Horizon Clubs which will be held in Sault Ste. Marie May 24 and 25.

Mrs. Walter Peters, president, gave a concise and interesting report on the National Council meeting in New York City which she attended.

Indications are that 37 members of the local clubs will attend the two-day sessions with groups assembling from Negaunee, Escanaba, and other points for a workshop and general get-together. The Escanaba girls will make the trip by chartered bus and will be accompanied by four chaperones, two leaders and two mothers.

Members of the council inspected note books of the Camp Fire Girls at their meeting Tuesday and examined many of the handiwork items. The various groups are working on a full schedule for their awards and excellent reports were received from Rapid River and Wells as well as from Escanaba.

Bark River-Harris Club Closes Year With Dinner Party

The Bark River-Harris Teachers' Club held a dinner party at the Dells last evening as the closing event of its season. Mrs. E. J. MacMartin presided.

Following dinner Leonard Nault, director of music in the Bark River-Harris system, led the group in a program of songs.

As a special observance of the evening, corsages were presented to Mrs. Leo Brunelle and Miss Evelyn Harmela, teachers who are severing their connection with the system. Further, on behalf of the Teachers' Club, a gift was presented to Leo Brunelle, retiring superintendent who has served the consolidated districts for the past five years. The presentation was made by Mrs. Harold Bruce, principal of the senior high school. Arrangements for the event were perfected by Ray Raymond, principal of the junior high school, who acted as master of ceremonies. The event was well attended by the faculty and their guests, among whom were the members of the Board of Education.

A social hour closed the entertainment of the evening.

Revealing New Summer Sandals Point Up Pretty, Painted Toes

All your toes will show in the pretty new summer sandals that are getting so much attention this season (left). The "naked" look calls for extra care for your feet (right), and you'll be particularly pleased with a new shimmer polish that harmonizes with the glistening leather of the sandals. It's a fashion-right combination.

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

If you haven't started a summer foot-beauty routine, you better make up for lost time. There is every indication that shoes will be more bare than ever before, with the nude look predominating.

As you well know, winter's closed shoes may protect and keep your feet warm, but they also tend to exaggerate any tendency toward callouses, corns and unsightly ridges.

To get your feet looking lovely in short order, you will need a few simple aids. A pumice stone, still nail brush, nail clippers, extra-rich lanolin cream and your regular pedicure preparations should do the trick.

Begin with the pumice stone and nail brush on the rough skin of your heels. A little extra rubbing each night while you're still in the shower, plus thorough drying with a heavy towel, will start you on the way.

Give careful attention to the cuticle with an orange stick, cotton and cuticle softener. Follow with a sensible trimming of the nails (never cut into corners), not only because this will prevent future complications, but because the sheer hose necessary for your new sandals have no reinforcement.

Always apply a heavy cream or lotion to any trouble spots each night before retiring. An old pair of white cotton socks will help keep the preparation from staining the sheets.

Following this special care, you will want to complete the pedicure with nail enamel as the finishing touch. Harmonizing polish on both hands and feet is always smart, but with the introduction

Care Governs Hair Beauty

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

Spring is a transition period for your hair. Heated rooms, heavy hats and freezing temperatures have all taken their toll. Before you can be certain your hair will look lovely under the revealing rays of the sun, you must give it some special treatment.

You'll be getting your hair off to a pretty, healthy start first if you have it cut. This will eliminate all those dry and frizzy ends.

If you need a permanent, either give yourself one or pay a visit to your favorite salon. This is no time for limp, straight hair. Pretty soon you will be swimming and spending many hours in the sun. You certainly won't want to worry about whether or not your hair will hold its curl.

Since the sun has a tendency to dry out the natural oils when you are out all day, wear a protective covering on your head. So many women are inclined to discard hats as soon as summer comes. This is unwise. You must guard your precious hair.

Always a "must" is brushing. One hundred strokes a day are the absolute minimum. Once a month give your hair and scalp a special oil treatment. This will also help to prevent your hair from drying. Massage your scalp, too. And don't forget to apply a hair dressing before you go in swimming.

Without care on your part, the sun can be just as damaging to your hair as it is to your skin. The precautions you take will insure its health and beauty.

Most time is saved when a pressure cooker is used for foods that need long cooking—dry beans, fowl, smoked tongue, cuts of beef that are not tender.

Ordinary washing usually removes light scorch from white cottons or linens. For more severe stains, use hydrogen peroxide solution. Rinse well.

A Creed For Free Enterprise

By Clarence B. Randall
Fact-Finders Don't Find Facts

These articles are based on a forthcoming Atlantic Monthly Press-Little-Brown and Company book, "A Creed For Free Enterprise," by Clarence B. Randall, president of Inland Steel Co.

Consideration of the growing thirst for power by the tycoons of the modern labor movement, power that shall be co-extensive with the forty-eight states geographically and that shall permeate every segment of the national economy, brings me quite logically to the subject of fact-finding boards.

I suppose that every well informed person now knows when this new tactic is being employed, but few have reflected on its implications. It could not be used if they did, for it is based by hypothesis upon public indifference.

It is the way by which politicians, who hope they won't be caught at it, grant labor unions concessions which could not be obtained through collective bargaining, and which no responsible employer would agree to in a genuinely free economy. The process is quite simple. While an emergency is on, the union announces a paralyzing strike in a basic industry, and then the day before the catastrophe hits, graciously stands aside in the public interest at the request of the President to permit men from outside the industry who bear no responsibility for its welfare to determine what is best for it.

The sequence is always substantially the same before a fact-finding board. Unions never lose. Of course, they don't get all of their demands, but they always get something, and in the midst of a national emergency when sacrifice should be shared equally, an escape mechanism is set up for a favored segment of the population by which they take away from all others the something that is granted.

Deal In Advance

Now I am not one who cynically believes that a deal is made in advance. I do not say that the White House instructs the public members of fact-finding boards as to what facts they shall find or what recommendations they shall make, but my experience does lead me to believe that the White House has never appointed to such a post any man unless it is sure in advance how his mind works and what his views are likely to be.

A typical public member believes that his duty in the midst of the crisis is threefold: first, he must try to do justice between parties; secondly, he must avert a strike; and thirdly, he must not let the head of a large union lose face. So when all the testimony is in and the last press conference has been held, he yields to expediency instead of principle and gives. After which he goes back to the campus of his university, sheds the responsibility as he resumes his academic gown, and lets others struggle to make it work. The strike, it is true, is settled, but the damage done to the economy by the cowardice of compromise may be immeasurable.

Among the three factors that influence the decisions of public members of fact-finding boards let no one underestimate the importance of the last, their unwillingness to let an important labor personality lose face. It is known in management circles as the "Phil has got to have something" principle.

It operates at every level of governmental mediation and in every phase of interference in collective bargaining. I have heard it personally in I can't tell how many government conferences. We seem to be committed to a policy of balance of power among the great labor tycoons under which each in turn must make a spectacular gain for his followers. Yet obviously, such considerations are utterly foreign to thoughtful consideration of what is best for our economy and the perpetuation of the American way of life, and totally unrelated to what is a fair wage as between a particular employer and his workmen, located in a particular community.

Softening-Up Campaign

As a prelude or build-up to the threat of a nation-wide strike from which a fact-finding board will emerge is another process which is not lovely to think about or easy to document, but which tries the souls of industrial relations staffs, and that is the softening-up campaign of short, sharp strikes by small groups. They resemble the probing of enemy defenses by reconnaissance patrols in war. One week it will be the shipping gang, and the next the crane men, until a whole series of localized but repetitive incidents has occurred that harass management and create an expectancy of big things ahead in every department. The alleged grievances are always, of course, subject to orderly adjustment under the terms of the signed contract, but strikes break out instead. It is explained that the rank and file got out of hand. No one of us could prove that this is a pattern campaign manipulated by a central authority, but it is done with consummate skill, and as the years pass and the pattern repeats itself it is hard to believe that it is purely coincidental.

The degree to which the deliberate harassing of management is contributed to or used by the communist organization in the United States is too occult for my meager sources of information. But that communism is still a force in labor strife I am very certain. I believe that at long last most of the well-known labor leaders have turned against this sinister movement with real patriotism, but there are still many situations where their clean-up campaigns have been ineffective. There are still card-carrying communists who are officers of union locals, men who measure their own success in terms of the number of times that they are able to strike a plant in the course of a year in violation of the contract.

And there is no more baffling problem in human relations than for a man who has been trained in the logical analysis of problems, and who has a lively instinct for fair dealing, to find himself face to face with such deliberate irresponsibility and planned disorder. It helps not at all at such times to have an outsider naively suggest, "Let's find out what they want." The classic picture of "sitting down around a table," the liberal employer and the well-meaning employees joining in discussion of plant problems in a spirit of mutual confidence with generous give and take on both sides becomes distorted into a nightmare of cold war in which no one wins except the enemies of our country.

"Alaska" is a corruption of a native word meaning "the great country," according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

All this work is done for you in the Ann Delafield Reducing Plan with generous, appetizing yet low-calorie menus. The secret of the amazing success of Miss Delafield's Plan is a scientifically produced... and delicious... wafer called the Ann Delafield Appetite Reducer. It's the greatest blessing a hungry person ever had! When you reach that time of day when you feel you need a snack for energy... you simply take the Appetite Reducer wafer. This wafer was conceived after years of practical experience and endless hours of consultation with physicians and dietitians.

In addition, your diet is supplemented by Ann Delafield Vitamin Capsules... carefully prepared by expert chemists to conform to the standards set down by the Food and Nutrition Board of the National Research Council.

DON'T PUT IT OFF ANY LONGER

If your doctor has told you that your excess weight is not due to a glandular disturbance or organic causes, start on your Ann Delafield Reducing Plan today. The complete package... containing the book, a 30-day supply of your Ann Delafield Appetite Reducer Wafers and Vitamins... costs just $6.95; repeat package just $5.95.

Judith Nash weighed 161 pounds and had tried again and again to lose the extra pounds that were making her self-conscious and unhappy. Then she tried the Ann Delafield Appetite Reducing Plan and wrote this to the famous beauty authority...

"Dear Miss Delafield... with the aid of your wonderful Appetite Reducer I lost 27 pounds and never felt better in all my life. My doctor found my health perfect and is greatly enthused about your particular method of reducing. The Ann Delafield Appetite Reducer not only kept me from feeling hungry, but gave me more vital energy than I could get in any other way."

Judith Nash, New York

What you get with the Ann Delafield Reducing Plan:

1. A 116-page book giving you Ann Delafield's new, easy Appetite Reducing Plan, including suggested menus and vital beauty tips.
2. A 30-day supply of Ann Delafield Appetite Reducer... not a drug but a delicious, non-fattening, scientifically produced supplementary food that includes low caloric Skim Milk Powder and Soy Bean Flour.
3. A 30-day supply of the Ann Delafield Vitamin Capsules... scientifically prepared according to the Recommended Dietary Allowances, Food and Nutrition Board, National Research Council in 1948 for women on a 2000 calorie or less reducing diet, except for the omission of Thiamine, which has a tendency to increase your appetite.

Improvements Urged By C-C

At a regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening it was recommended that the city commission continue working for a solution to the problem of adequately lighting North and South Ninth streets, supply adequate trailer parking space within the city limits, adopt a program of sidewalk construction and repair; trim boulevards and trees and blacktop Lowrie and part of Railway avenue to where it meets Delta avenue.

The directors also moved to request the State Highway Department to refinish Ninth Street.

Use of luminous paint on street markers was approved and Charles Burton will ask the Lions Club to carry it out as a club project.

H. T. Brewer, Oliver Gabrielson and Theophil Hoffmann were named to work with the police department in screening solicitors.

Jackson Mutiny Cost $1,091,548

LANSING—(AP)—The cost of repairing the damage done at Southern Michigan prison during the riots was officially estimated at $1,091,548.

State Controller Robert F. Steadman said that his staff had made a detailed study of the damage to service buildings and equipment and had set $813,432 as the cost of restoring the greenhouse, bakery, kitchen, commissary, vocational school, chapel, library, central stores, gymnasium, dining room, laundry and inmate stores to their original condition.

The prison staff had surveyed the cost of replacing damaged equipment in the cell blocks at $278,116, Steadman reported.

"We are assured," Steadman reported, "that the prison can be placed in sound operating condition, at least for the time being, without complete replacement of all supplies and materials lost and without immediate repair of all structural damage."

Steadman said that among the first jobs needed done is to restore the prison laundry facilities. The most practical of three possibilities, he said, is to install laundry equipment in the building formerly used for central stores.

This would cost $405,000, Steadman said. Other more expensive alternatives, he said, were to build two laundry plants, one inside the walls and one outside, and to reconstruct the laundry in its present location.

Misspellings Plague Los Angeles Schools

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—School superintendent Alexander J. Stoddard has decided what should be done with 500,000 report cards that came back from the printer with misspellings.

He recommended to the board of education yesterday that some be used as office duplicates in secondary schools and the rest, corrected by hand, be issued to elementary school students.

When the cards came out several weeks ago the "u" and "a" in "language" were transposed and the second "s" was missing from "semester." Seems the school system's proof reader hadn't noticed the errors.

Concluding his report to the school board, Stoddard said: "There are two words, 'language' and 'semester,' that we hope no one of our generation will ever misspell again."

Stoddard apparently didn't proofread his copy. It's "misspell," not "misspell."

Trinity Episcopal Church Celebrates Jubilee May 25

The Jubilee of Trinity Episcopal Church of Gladstone will be celebrated on Sunday, May 25.

While the 50th anniversary of the founding of the church actually fell on July 21, 1951, the event may be celebrated at anytime within the year following.

Many names reminiscent of pioneer days in Gladstone are found in the records of the church. A few among them are C. W. Davis, George J. Slining, J. J. Farrell.

Men Bowlers In City Tournament

Teams in the Gladstone Bowling league are now participating in a City Bowling tournament at the Midway alleys.

The 5-man team event is now being rolled and will conclude tonight. Singles and doubles will be rolled next week on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

A handicap system is being used in order that every team and every bowler will have an equal chance for the top spots.

Solitary Drinking Bad For Babies Too

VANCOUVER, B. C.—(AP)—Solitary drinking should be frowned on at all times, an expert on social work said Tuesday. Even if the tripper is a toddler and the liquid refreshment is milk.

Mrs. Helen Exner of the University of British Columbia school of social work said a mother can warp her child's personality by propping the baby bottle and leaving the infant to guzzle by himself.

She told a parent-youth conference mothers should co-operate in operation feeding-time because "this is the first experience the child has in doing something with someone else."

Mrs. Exner said studies show that babies in institutions "whose bottles are propped up and who do not get individual attention do not develop socially." And she added: "They have trouble holding jobs, making a successful marriage and living with others."

Lingerie Raid Foiled At Indiana University

BLOOMINGTON, Ind.—(AP)—Bloomington and Indiana University police, led by I. U.'s dean of students, stopped a lingerie raid by male students before it got started.

Plans for the raid were made in parts of the men's independent housing units, and word got to Col. R. L. Shoemaker, dean of students.

When several hundred men arrived at Pine Hall, they found Shoemaker and a cordon of campus and city police drawn up around the building.

Stopped there, the crowd took off for another women's hall. Shoemaker, determined to prevent raids like those at Purdue and Michigan, beat them to it.

Stopped a second time, the raiders gave up and trudged back to their dorms without souvenirs.

Detroit Convicted Of $56,185 Fraud

DETROIT —(AP)—Wayne R. Campbell, 41, was convicted here on two counts of defrauding a Detroit auto agency.

A recorder's court jury of seven women and five men found Campbell guilty of defrauding the P. L. Grissom and Son, Inc., of $56,185.

The jury acquitted Charles William McConnell, a former parts manager for the auto agency who was accused of the fraud along with Campbell.

Recorder's Judge Frank Schmanske rebuked the jurors in the McConnell acquittal. Judge Schmanske told the jurors they had "freed the real conspirator in the fraud."

Campbell was found guilty of obtaining money under false pretenses and of conspiracy to obtain money under false pretenses.

Great Lakes Shipping Sets Record So Far

CLEVELAND—(AP)—Combined shipments of iron ore, coal and grain on the Great Lakes have been greater so far this season than in any like postwar period since 1949.

The Lake Carriers' Association made this report today, pointing out that shipments began this year in April as compared with a March start in 1949.

Net tonnage through April 30 was placed at 14,521,660. Last year at the same date the tonnage was 14,229,170.

The tonnage was broken down like this: iron ore 7,315,948 as compared with 6,956,851 last year; coal, 5,338,484 as against 5,749,141; grain, 1,817,228 as against 1,523,178.

Nurse Saves Busload As Driver Collapses

LANCASTER, Pa. — (AP) — A 21-year-old student nurse was the heroine of a near tragedy on the Lincoln highway near here yesterday when she grabbed the wheel of a careening bus after the driver had collapsed. She guided the big vehicle through a field of trees to a safe stop.

The nurse, Mary Jane Bailey, of Wrightsville, Pa., was sitting behind the driver, H. Edwin Smith, of Philadelphia, when he was stricken.

She reached over his prostrate form and took the wheel as the careening bus left the highway, plunged between utility poles and through a wooden farmyard fence. Four passengers were injured slightly.

LOST LAKE

Lake Bonneville is the name given by geologists to a fresh water lake which existed thousands of years ago. It covered what now is Utah, as well as parts of Idaho and Nevada. With withdrawal of the glaciers, Lake Bonneville shrank and only a few smaller lakes survived, principal one of which is Great Salt Lake.

Present Play Friday Night

The annual senior class play, "Cheaper by the Dozen," will be presented in the Manistique high school auditorium Friday evening, beginning at 8:15.

The play, a three-act comedy, is delightfully humorous but has a meaning and beauty the average audience will long remember. The story centers around a father who, knowing he is living on borrowed time, sets about to establish a type of efficiency in his home patterned after that of an industrial plant. He wants his home to function smoothly after he is gone.

His children, particularly his two date-age daughters, do not know that their father has a heart ailment, and cannot understand his insistence on domestic efficiency. Humorous complications develop as the play progresses, involving in particular his oldest daughter's date with a brash high school cheerleader.

The play is under the direction of Marvin Frederickson.

Select School Election Staff

Inspectors for the annual school election on Monday, June 9, were approved at a regular meeting of the Manistique Board of Education Tuesday night.

Inspectors for the two voting precincts follow:

Lakeside school—Mrs. Edward Mathson, Mrs. Carl Anderson and Max Larson; Lincoln school—Mrs. Vilas Young, Mrs. Aldred Farley and Van Anderson.

Alex Robertson, city clerk, was designated election registrar. Registration will take place Saturday, May 31, from 3 to 8 p. m., at the City Hall.

The board also approved an increase of $78,000 in insurance coverage on school buildings and contents in accordance with an appraisal recently made.

Purchase of two playground items—a wave-stride and a castle tower—was approved. The equipment will be placed at Riverside school, scheduled to reopen next September.

The board also approved the purchase of an Eras-o-matic eraser cleaner for Central school. If the machine proves satisfactory, other eraser cleaners will be bought for Lincoln, Lakeside and Riverside schools.

Reconstruction of the Central school coal shed wall was again discussed, and a decision made to send copies of rebuilding specifications to various local contractors.

A. F. Hall, superintendent, told board members that he had engaged two new teachers—Miss Margaret Nelson, of Manistique, who will teach primary at Riverside, and Miss Evelyn Berwin, formerly of Manistique, who will teach either in junior high school or the grades.

Two vacancies in the faculty still need to be filled, Hall reported. A world history and an English teacher are needed in high school. A primary vacancy, while still open, has been tentatively filled, he said.

The board also discussed at length the engagement of a football coach for next fall and the desirability of starting the playing season a week after school opens in September, beginning in 1953. The superintendent was instructed to interview applicants for the coaching job.

The summer work week of the public school janitorial staff was left at 44 hours, with employees being given the privilege of working enough extra hours on five

HOW JUDITH NASH LOST 27 lbs. WITH AMAZING NEW APPETITE REDUCER PLAN

Ann Delafield, Famous Beauty Consultant, Reveals Dramatic Story of Her Easy, Natural Way to Lose Weight

Ann Delafield, who has helped more people lose weight than any other woman in the world.

"Judith Nash had tried reducing many, many times in her life but was never really successful," says Ann Delafield, renowned beauty authority.

"Then she tried the Ann Delafield Appetite Reducing Plan and discovered the wonderful secret of the Appetite Reducer. In an amazingly short time she slimmed down from 161 to a trim 134."

IT'S EASY—IT'S FUN

The story of Judith Nash can be your story, too. Now... a reducing plan is offered to you based on scientific laboratory research, and implemented by a vitamin protective capsule. If you are one of the thousands of women and men who have an overweight problem... the Ann Delafield Appetite Reducing Plan was designed to help you find slender beauty. It is the easiest way in the world to reduce because it's fun.

YOU CAN EAT YOUR CAKE AND HAVE "IT" TOO

If your figure isn't as perfect as you would like to have it... don't be discouraged. Perhaps you are one of the large army of women who have carried extra pounds for years... who have tried weight-reducing plans that have brought nothing but tears... who have punished their bodies with starvation diets. Now, at last, here's a scientific way to keep the slender beauty that's rightfully yours.

Your answer is the Ann Delafield Reducing Plan... an easy way to reduce that doesn't take the fun out of life. During Miss Delafield's forty years of experience in helping hundreds of thousands of women to lose weight, she has learned a great deal about this common problem. Most of her pupils have been recommended by personal physicians.

YOU DON'T COUNT CALORIES

All this work is done for you in the Ann Delafield Reducing Plan with generous, appetizing yet low-calorie menus. The secret of the amazing success of Miss Delafield's Plan is a scientifically produced... and delicious... wafer called the Ann Delafield Appetite Reducer. It's the greatest blessing a hungry person ever had! When you reach that time of day when you feel you need a snack for energy... you simply take the Appetite Reducer wafer. This wafer was conceived after years of practical experience and endless hours of consultation with physicians and dieticians.

In addition, your diet is supplemented by Ann Delafield Vitamin Capsules... carefully prepared by expert chemists to conform to the standards set down by the Food and Nutrition Board of the National Research Council.

DON'T PUT IT OFF ANY LONGER

If your doctor has told you that your excess weight is not due to a glandular disturbance or organic causes, start on your Ann Delafield Reducing Plan today. The complete package... containing the book, a 30-day supply of your Ann Delafield Appetite Reducer Wafers and Vitamins... costs just $6.95; repeat package just $5.95.

What you get with the Ann Delafield Reducing Plan:

1. A 116-page book giving you Ann Delafield's new, easy Appetite Reducing Plan, including suggested menus and vital beauty tips.
2. A 30-day supply of Ann Delafield Appetite Reducer... not a drug but a delicious, non-fattening, scientifically produced supplementary food that includes low calorie Skim Milk Powder and Soy Bean Flour.
3. A 30-day supply of the Ann Delafield Vitamin Capsules... scientifically prepared according to the Recommended Dietary Allowances, Food and Nutrition Board, National Research Council in 1948 for women on a 2000 calorie or less reducing diet, except for the omission of Thiamine, which has a tendency to increase your appetite.

45 To Receive First Communion On Sunday At St. Francis Church

Forty-five youngsters of St. Francis de Sales Church will receive their first holy communion on Sunday, May 18, it is announced by the Rev. F. M. Scheringer, pastor.

The children will assemble at the parish school and march in a group to the church, attended by a large number of altar boys and the following young people dressed as angels: Gloria Braeger, Christine Ranguette, Linda Talbot and Ruth Ann Frankovich.

During the mass the children will recite the prayers and sing the special hymns they have learned. Parents of the children are requested to be at the sacraments with them.

At 3 p. m. Saturday the class of first communicants will renew their baptismal vows, be enrolled in the Scapular Society, and make their first holy confession.

Members of the class follow:

Elaine Bassett, Gilbert Benish, Thomas Binder, John Bonifas, Sandra Boyd, James Brunet.

David Corison, Richard Cour-naya.

Zone Meeting Held By Lions

Five Lions clubs were represented at a zone meeting at the Paul Bunyan Cook Camp Tuesday evening, called for the purpose of instructing new officers on duties and procedures as Lions officers.

Oral Thompson, of Cornell, zone chairman, presided at the business session which followed dinner. Henry Giroux, of Nahma, deputy district governor, also was present at the meeting. Angus Nault, of Newberry, district governor of Upper Peninsula clubs, was unable to attend.

Officers and members of the various clubs represented follow: Garden Peninsula Lions Club—Alec Weigandt, Russell Minor Jr., and Nestor Seaman.

Gladstone Lions Club—J. Walter VanDeWeghe, Lloyd Morgan. Nahma Lions Club—Herb Blowers, Hector Gagnon and Henry Giroux.

Cornell Lions Club—Alfred J. Dahl, Gus H. McFadden, Oral Thompson, Morton Schire, Grey Knaus and Leroy White.

Manistique Lions Club—Frank Richards, O. F. Smits, Carl R. Graves, Ronald Fiegel, Howard Hewitt, John A. Raffay, Dr. Merle H. Wehner, E. E. Cookson, C. E. Leonard, Earl Cox.

Fourth Will Be Celebrated Here

A definite decision to hold a Fourth of July celebration in Manistique this year was made at a meeting of committee chairmen Tuesday.

The event, again sponsored by the American Legion, will be directed by three permanent chairmen—Harvey Quick, John Wood and Emery Barnes—and other committee members to be selected during the next week.

A full celebration program will be outlined at a general committee session next week. Included will be a kiddies' parade and a fireworks display.

NIGHT FISHING

Since fishermen spot the schools by their faint glow, commercial sardine fishing must be done at night in the dark of the moon.

Demands Trial On 'Shining' Charge

As an aftermath of the slaying of a mother doe deer in Manistique township Sunday night, Richard Hicks, a resident of the township, was arrested yesterday morning by Conservation Officers Ernest Derwin, charged with headlighting.

Hicks pleaded not guilty at his arraignment shortly afterwards in Manistique justice court and trial was set for Wednesday, May 21. Bond was set at $100 by Victor P. Deemer, justice of the peace, and Hicks was placed in jail until bond was furnished in the afternoon.

Hicks was arrested and pleaded guilty last March to hunting without a license.

Plan Memorial Day Observance

Preliminary plans for the observance of Memorial Day on May 30 by three local veterans organizations were announced yesterday.

Included in the observance will be the traditional Memorial Day parade, which will form at the high school stadium and proceed on Maple avenue and E. Elk street to the World War I monument at the intersection of E. Elk and River streets.

A rifle salute will be fired at the monument, and the procession will then return to the stadium via River, South Cedar, Oak and Maple.

The stadium program will include the national anthem; a pledge of allegiance by Boy and Girl Scouts; a rifle salute outside the stadium; invocation by the Rev. George Pernaski, assistant pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church; an address by the Rev. A. Barton Brown, of the First Baptist Church; and benediction by the Rev. Leo Clyde, of the Seventh Day Adventist Church. Everett Anderson will preside as master of ceremonies.

During services at the stadium the firing squad will visit and fire salutes at Fairview and Lakeview cemeteries.

Commanders of local veterans groups—William Cowman, of the American Legion; John Nessman, of the VFW; and Floyd Houghton, of the DAV—will have charge of the observance. Capt. E. J. Doyle, of the Manistique National Guard Company, will serve as sergeant-at-arms during the parade and program.

Escanaba Plays Host To Ishpeming Friday

The undefeated Escanaba Eskymo baseball team will attempt to extend its win streak to four at the expense of the Ishpeming Hematites here Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Coach Jim Rouman has named southpaw Fred Boddy for the starting pitching assignment. Boddy has one win this season, a victory over the Negaunee Miners.

Other starters will be Jo Johnston behind the plate, Al Davidson at first, Francis Artley at second, Paul Gunderman at short, Dick Peterson at third, Joe Larmay, Paul Baldwin and Charile Bellefeuille or Breitzman in the outfield.

Escanaba will be facing an unknown quality in Coach C. C. Watson's Ishpeming team. The Hematites will be playing their first game of the season Saturday. The Hematites have been working out the past several weeks with 21 team candidates. Either Bob Sharland or George Ostlund will do the pitching. Remaining positions are not yet set.

In addition to Negaunee, the Eskymos have tacked losses on St. Joe and Marquette this season. They were unbeaten in eight games last year.

Umpires will be Al Ness and John Nyquist.

Hiltunen Back, May Pitch For Escanaba Bears Here Sunday

Russ Hiltunen, who reports for Army induction Tuesday, may hurl for the Escanaba Bears in the Sunday home opener against Bark River in the Tri County league.

Hiltunen, Oshkosh Giant pitcher, tossed for Escanaba throughout the early part of last season before reporting to the Wisconsin State League team.

The entire Tri County opening day slate was rained out last week and this Sunday's games will be the first for all league teams.

Maglie Wins Sixth In Row As Giants Stretch Margin

By JACK HAND
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Sal (The Barber) Maglie is shaving National League hitters so close the boys are objecting to the lather.

Cincinnati did its best to upset the New York Giants ace yesterday with repeated demands to see the ball. The intimidation was that Maglie might be sneaking in a "splitter." The umpires could find nothing wrong.

When Frank Hiller, Cincy pitcher, asked Umpire Augie Dopatelli for the ball in the fifth, Maglie burned to a crisp. His toss sailed over the catcher's head toward the stands. Next inning the Giants asked to see the ball Hiller was throwing.

Maglie was so upset he cooled off the Reds with six hits, 8-3, for his sixth straight victory. Unbeaten, in 1952, the 34-year-old righthander is off to a flying start toward another big year, like his 23-6 of last season.

16 of 18
With the Maglie-Larry Jansen-Jim Hearn chaining the opposition, the champion Giants are on a five-game win spree. They have won 16 of their last 18 to open up a two-game lead on the runnerup Brooklyn Dodgers.

Gerry Staley, beaten only by Maglie in compiling a 6-1 record for St. Louis, shoved Brooklyn another game behind the Giants with a steady six-hitter for a 5-1 victory. Solly Hemus was the big hitter for the Cards, hammering home three runs with a home run and triple. The homer came off loser Chris Ven Cuyk, the triple off reliever Ralph Branca.

With Granny Hamner and Willie Jones doing the heavy bombing, Russ Meyer finally dodged the hard luck that trailed him in four previous games to lift the Phillies over Chicago, 9-2. Although Meyer allowed 11 hits he kept them well scattered as the Phils continued their spurt toward the first division.

Pete Whisenant's single with the bases loaded, juggled by shortstop George Strickland just cng enough to let Jack Daniels score, gave the Boston Braves a 10th inning 4-3 edge over Pittsburgh.

Hank Bauer and Johnny Sain were the chief agents helping the New York Yankees catch up with Cleveland for a 5-3 win after losing four straight to the tribe.

Bosox Skid
The Boston Red Sox continued to wrestle with their same old problem—how to win away from Fenway Park—as they lost their sixth straight on the road, 6-3, at Chicago.

Rookie southpaw Bill Henry took a 3-0 lead into the sixth where the White Sox cut loose with a six-run blast just as rain began driving the small crowd to shelter. Rain forced the umpires to call the game after seven innings. Salk Rogovin recovered from a shaky start to gain his third victory.

The St. Louis Browns snapped out of a batting slump to rack up four Philadelphia pitchers with a 16-hit attack as they broke a three-game losing streak with a 12-7 win. Satch Paige kept the Browns in front with a fine relief job after Gene Bearden faltered in the seventh.

Lightweight Champ Loses Crown On Split Decision

LOS ANGELES —(P)— New York's Jimmy Carter won the lightweight championship in an upset, he lost it the same way and so today the boxing world greeted a new ruler of the 135-pound division—Lauro Salas of Monterrey, Mex.

Just as 28-year-old Carter captured the crown with a surprise 14-round knockout over Ike Williams last May 25, so did Carter create a surprise by dropping it to his 24-year-old rival, a comparative unknown in title circles, in 15 rounds last night.

True, the decision was a split one, and many boxing writers disagreed with the verdict. But the fact remained today—the new champion is Lauro Salas, a youngster who, like Carter not too long ago, was getting nowhere in boxing until he was ushered into the title picture.

Votes Split

If there was divided opinion among the officials—the referee called the fight for Carter, the two judges overruled him—and sharp disagreement among the experts, certainly there was nothing but international joy stretching from Los Angeles' Olvera Street to all parts south of the border.

Salas is the first native Mexican to win an undisputed world championship.

"This was no win for myself alone," exclaimed the tempestuous Salas. "I am glad for the people of Mexico—the Mexican people here, the people in Mexico."

Champ Tired

Carter, dethroned in his third defense of the title, was disconsolate. So was his manager, veteran Willie Ketchum, who declared: "Jimmy got tired but I don't know how they saw the other guy winning."

Referee Frankie Van gave Carter the bout on points, 83-82 on the California 11-point per round system. Judge Mushy Callahan called it for Salas, 84-81, and Judge Joe Stone had it 83½-81½. The Associated Press scored it 83-82 for Carter, and accorded Carter the heavier volume of solid punches.

Salas captured the best round, the second, when he sent Jimmy tipsying across the ring from two hard fights to the jaw, delivered in rapid succession.

Opens Cut

And he captured the fancy of the crowd, unquestionably a partisan turnout, with his rally in the last five rounds.

Salas split the skin above and below Jimmy's left eye in the 13th, and the champion said it bothered him from then on.

Carter came back nicely, if not spectacularly, after the big Salas second round, and by the 10th was coasting along on top. He worked in businesslike fashion, jabbing Salas out of a crouch, and banging away with both hands.

Salas started to come back in the 10th but got nowhere. But from the 11th on, he was a ball of fire, lashing away from all angles. He missed countless times, but by then Carter was tiring and unable to counter effectively.

Eighteen Eskymos To Compete In Regional Track Meet Saturday

Eighteen Escanaba High School track and field squad members will travel to Menominee Saturday to take part in the 1952 regional meet.

Coaches Steve Baltic and Henry Wylie today named the entries who will seek to qualify for the U. P. finals to be staged May 24 at Houghton.

Escanaba track athletes will be competing in Class B against boys from Kingsford, Iron Mountain, Stephenson, Menominee and Gladstone. Class D-E will also compete, with Alpha, Carney, Cooks, Hermansville and Nahma taking part.

The regional meet will open at 9:45 a. m. with preliminaries and finals in the shot put, high jump, pole vault and broad jump. Final event is scheduled for 4:10 p. m.

Escanaba entries follow:

Escanaba will be represented in each of the 13 track and field events.

Two of the Eskymos, Dick Casey in the mile, and John Connelly in the half-mile, have not been beaten this season.

See Large Field In Saturday Preakness

BALTIMORE —(P)— They start to line up today for the 76th running of Saturday's Preakness, one of horse racing's three main events for 3-year-olds.

Entries are being taken at Pimlico until 9 a. m. Eastern Standard Time tomorrow. This is the first time the Maryland Jockey Club has accepted entries 48 hours in advance. Scratch time will be 4 p. m. tomorrow.

Twelve colts are considered potential entries for a pot which grosses $105,770 now and will be upped $750 for each starter. The biggest Preakness starting field in recent years was 11 in 1947 when Calumet's Faultless won the record purse of $98,005.

Big Field

The absence of Hill Gail is one of the contributing factors to the potentially big Preakness field.

Yesterday's Stars

Batting, Hank Bauer, Yankees—drove home four runs with homer and double in New York's 5-3 win over Cleveland.
Pitching, Sal Maglie, Giants—won sixth straight by throwing six-hitter against Cincinnati, 8-3, as New York opened up two-game lead.

With that comet out of the way it became an invitation to a wide open race.

Five of the derby trailers view the Preakness as a chance to recoup. These include second and third place Sub Fleet and Blue Man, fifth place Count Flame, Arroz, the sixth finisher, and Gushing Oil, 11th out of 16 starters.

The others likely to enter are Armageddon, Jampol, Handsome Teddy, One Count, Primate, Sug-gested, and Roaring Bull.

Blue Man Favored

Charles T. Fisher's Sub Fleet and Arthur Abbott's Blue Man are expected to be the crowd's favorites with Hill Gail out of their way. The mile and three sixteenths Preakness is a sixteenth less than they had to run in the Derby.

Posing a handicapping problem is Eddie Arcaro, the master craftsman of the saddle who has won four Preaknesses, the last two in a row.

Supposed to ride Hill Gail, Arcaro accepted Mrs. W. M. Jefferson's One Count as a substitute. One Count's racing record so far is undistinguished, four firsts but never in a stakes out of 12 tries.

Air Force Reveals Data On New Jets

By VERN HAUGLAND
WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Air Force took the "classified" label off its two new all-jet heavy bombers, the YB-52 and the YB-60.

It also:

1. Disclosed dimensions which show that the YB-60 is somewhat larger of the two.
2. Released pictures showing hitherto unpublished details.

Local Public Health Officers Attending State Conference

Two officials of the state health department in Escanaba are currently attending the 31st annual Michigan Public Health Conference in Detroit.

Russell Johnson, engineer in charge of the Upper Peninsula division of the state health department, and Mrs. Florence Poorman, hearing consultant of the department, both of Escanaba, will be among the more than 800 public health workers from all parts of the state in attendance at the three-day meet, May 14-16, to discuss common problems and practices in the public health program.

A third member of the Upper Peninsula state health department, Charles Paquin, venereal disease investigator, is attending the conference with the local officials.

may be considered faster than this.

Both new bombers are powered with eight new Pratt and Whitney J-57 jets, believed to be the most powerful jet engines in the world.

The YB-52 made its first flight at Boeing Airfield, Seattle, April 15 and has completed its first phase of testing.

The YB-60 made its first flight at Carswell Air Force Base, Fort Worth, a few days later.

The Air Force said that because of flight testing of both planes, it is no longer practical to try to maintain security on the exterior details.

GORTON'S SALT CODFISH bx 55¢

FOOD FOR YOUNG

Burying beetles derive their name from the habit of burying their food. When they find a dead bird or mouse, they dig under the body until it settles down into the ground and, when deep enough, they cover it. Then the female digs down and deposits her eggs on the body and the larvae feed upon it.
